Dear friends in Christ,

Praised be Jesus Christ! I hope and pray that by the time you have read this that we have received some rain. Keep praying for rain.

In today's Gospel Jesus teaches about the locked door and entrance into the Kingdom of Heaven. Jesus says that not all who know Him will be allowed to enter. Why? Because instead of listening to Him and following Him they did their own thing in life. They did not keep the commandments. Last week we heard how we need to be a faithful witness of Jesus Christ and His Church. We heard of how we need to stand up for the truth and how we should be vigilant and watchful, prepared and waiting for the Second Coming of Jesus. In today's readings these themes of remaining vigilant and watchful, of being prepared, continue. In today's gospel we are told that if we are too overweight with sin and the baggage of this world, we will not fit through the "narrow gate". If we have not lived disciplined lives and have not properly prepared ourselves as a football player prepares for the upcoming football season, then we will be cut from the team, and left outside and there will not be time enough for us to get into shape, to cleanse and purify our bodies. There will not be time enough to steam away and work off that weight of sin and there will not be time enough to drop the excess baggage of this world before the door closes and it is locked in front of us. Then we will cry out, "Sir, open for us." and Jesus will say in reply, "I do not know where you come from." We must prepare ourselves and prove ourselves to be true followers of Jesus Christ. Jesus tells us in the gospel of Matthew, 7:21, "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father in heaven." Jesus also says in that same chapter that many will prophecy in His name but Jesus will tell them "I never knew you". This is because they did not do the will of God the Father. These were false prophets who prophesied not the truth of Christ, but only their own words and not the Words of Jesus. For us to be true witnesses and disciples of Jesus we must lead discipline lives. By doing this we will one day enter the Kingdom of God. May all of us strive to enter through the "narrow gate. When we leave this world and approach the kingdom of heaven and say "Sir, open for us" let us not be told by Jesus, "I do not know where you come from. Away from me you evildoers." but, instead, may the words of Jesus be, "With you I am well pleased. Come enter into my Kingdom."

Have a most blessed week being a true disciple of the Lord.

In Christ, Fr. Stephen Nestrta, farář

K ZAMYŠLENÍ: Nedávný proces synodality přinesl do církve zajímavé pohledy na současné prožívání víry. V jednom závěrečném dokumentu se píše: „Dobrovolně stranou zůstávají „nedělní křesťané“, kteří větší zapojení nehledají (konzumní křesťanství). Není to většina?“ Ježíš v evangeliu mluví k židům, kteří víru v Boha praktikují. Jim říká podobenství s úzkou branou. Dnes stojíme v jejich situaci my. Také na nás se Pán obrací. Nejde o hrozby a výčitky, ale o vytržení ze zajatých kolejí formalismu. Možná právě dnes je čas svoji víru probudit, zajímat se a ptát. Teď je tu Pán blízko a je připraven nás vést k bráně do života.

21ro Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario: En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús recuerda a la gente de su tiempo que su estatus como "gente elegida" no le garantiza la admisión al Reino de Dios. Esto es verdad para nosotros también. El reino de Dios se nos da como un don, pero para aceptar el don debemos de seguir a Jesús fielmente a través de la puerta angosta, lo que significa vivir en Él y por Él en todo lo que hacemos. Esa puerta angosta incluye nuestro amor y cuidado por los pobres y vulnerables ¿Somos lo suficientemente fuertes para ser siervos para los más pequeños, tal como Jesús lo fue?
