A Message from Bishop Joe Vásquez: Brothers and Sisters, For many young people, this month marks the end of the school year. Let us pray especially for our youth transitioning from high school to the next chapter of their lives. May they always remain faithful to their baptismal promises as they face decisions and challenges. May we continue to experience the joys of this Easter season filled with the presence of our Lord knowing that his victory over death is his invitation to join him always.

Thank you to everyone that enrolled their loved ones during the Annual CEF Mother's Day Drive. A total of $469 was collected for the Clerical Endowment Fund

Many people are beginning their summer vacations. Always remember to take a nice set of clothes along with you so that you will be properly dressed for Mass wherever you go. Check ahead of time to locate the Catholic Church and find out the Mass times so that you will be on time for Mass. You can find the Mass times for almost every parish by going to www.masstimes.org or by using their App on your smartphone. It is important that we do not neglect our worship of God and that we keep His Commandment to keep Holy the Sabbath Day. The Season of Summer is just 2 ½ weeks away and hot weather is upon us. Usually when summer approaches we are tempted to dress rather lightly or skimpy for Mass. We need to remember that as we come to Mass we come to worship God and to receive His Son in Holy Communion. We should dress in a way that shows respect for God. The general rule that I believe is appropriate is that anyone over 6 years of age should not wear shorts to Mass. Also, girls and ladies should wear blouses or dresses that are appropriate for Mass, nothing strapless or no spaghetti straps. Some say that God doesn't care what you wear to Mass. Well, that may be so. But the question should be "do you love God enough that you care what you wear to Mass and are you willing to do something special for Him?" Do you stand in honor in His presence? Also, if you dress appropriately for Mass you will not be cold in church from the air conditioning. If the air is blowing on you and you are cold, try to move to another part of the church.

Today we celebrate the mystery of the Trinity of God, a mystery of three Persons in one Divine Being. For many people our belief in the Trinity is just too much and they cannot bring themselves to believe that such a God exists. When others ask us how this can be we need to say that within human boundaries, it can't be. We have to move beyond our human limitations and realize that we live in a huge universe and that 99 percent of this universe has not been unlocked by our human minds. The belief of God as a Trinity of Persons must be accepted on faith. Our Lord Jesus Christ did reveal this mystery to us. If He had not done so then we would not know that God exists as a Trinity of Persons. Jesus tells the Apostles to go and baptize in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Jesus speaks about the Father quite often in the Gospels and that He is the Son of God and that God would send the Holy Spirit to take His place on earth.

We may ask ourselves "What is this Trinity of Persons whom we call God?" The Gospel of John tells us that God is Love. It is Love, pure and perfect Love, which makes this Trinity God. In today's first reading from the book of Exodus God tells Moses that the Lord is "a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity." St. Paul in his letter to the Corinthians tells us that God is a God of "love and peace." And in John's Gospel we hear how "God so loved the world that He gave His only Son, that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life." In all three readings of today we hear how God in a good and loving God. St. Paul tells us about the grace of Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit. All that we hear about God in today's readings describe a Trinity of Persons that is in perfect unity and perfect relationship with one another. Three Persons, yet One Divine God. These characteristics of God do not apply merely to the relationships within the Trinity. These characteristics also apply with God's relationship with all of creation. That is why God sent His only Son to save the world. It is because He is in relationship with the world, with you and I. God's love for us and His longing for our love led to Jesus being sent in humility and vulnerability to share our human life, and to offer us the chance to share in the life of perfect harmony and freedom which He enjoys with the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit. All that God asks of us, as Jesus tells Nicodemus, is that we do not shut ourselves off from the love God offers us. Those who believe in Him will be saved and those who deny Him deny themselves the chance of an open and intimate relationship with God. In the Person of Jesus Christ we have the greatest opportunity to share in the life of the Trinity. We also share in the life of the Trinity in our relationship with one another.

As Paul suggests, when we are open to the presence of God in each other, that is when we begin to share the life of the Trinity more deeply and to understand its perfection. As you know, it is so easy to close ourselves off from other people and to avoid them. In the same way we can close ourselves off from God. If we catch ourselves closing up in the presence of others, we need to remind ourselves that God is not like that. God loved an indifferent world so much that He sent His Son to be our redeemer. We who call upon the Trinity can unravel its mystery only by opening ourselves to love, for God is Love.

Next Sunday, June 11, is Corpus Christi Sunday. We will have our annual Corpus Christi Procession after the 8:30 am Mass.

May all of you have a most blessed week.

Fr. Stephen Nesrsta, farář

K úvaze:

Tak Otec miloval svět, že dal svého Syna.

Tak Otec miloval svět, že dal svého Ducha.

Tak Otec miloval svět, že dal sebe sama - v Synu a v Duchu.

Dnes slavíme dar celé Trojice. Dar obnovovaný při každé liturgii, kdy zpřítomňujeme dar Syna v chlebě a víně. V tomto daru se nám zároveň dává i Otec, i Duch - vždyť kde je Syn, je i Otec, i Duch. A tak až přijmeš velikonoční dar Kristova těla, vzpomeň si: "Toto je celá Trojice, která se ti dává ..."

La Solemnidad de la Santísima Trinidad: Esta solemnidad de la Santísima Trinidad nos invita a entrar en el misterio y el dinamismo de nuestro Dios Trino. Nuestro Dios no es una fuerza abstracta, sino tres personas tan unidas en el amor que son una. Estamos bautizados en un amor dinámico y ahora la vida y el aliento de Dios son nuestros. Esta festividad nos reta a dejarnos ser liberados del miedo y guiar a otros hacia la Libertad.
