Deadline for Raffle Prize donations is THIS Sunday, May 5.

If you are interested in donating a prize for our Raffle, please contact Stephanie Wright (512-470-5204). Seems that Gift Cards have been the trend, but any and all (new and unused items valued at $50 or more) will be gladly accepted. You may consider combining resources with a friend or family member for a larger priced card or item ... but no item is too small ... and all are very much appreciated! Thank you!

We congratulate and welcome Harrison Brendan Hartwick (son of Matthew & Ashley Hartwick) and Peter George Jacobs (son of Josh & Steffani Jacobs) into the Catholic Church and the parish family through the Sacrament of Baptism.

All visitors and parishioners are invited to Hospitality Sunday this Sunday, May 5 in the PAC Bldg after the 8:30 a.m. Mass. There will also be a June Fundraiser meeting following the breakfast. If you would like to help with this event, please plan on attending this meeting. We appreciate the KJZT organization for preparing the breakfast.

Our annual Mother's Day CEF enrollment drive will be held in the foyer of the church after the Masses the weekends of May 4&5 and 11&12. Enrollments are Spiritual Bouquet Gifts you may wish to give to any living or deceased mother, grandmothers, daughters, etc. Enrollments for other occasions/persons can also be made at this time. The usual offering is $2 per person, per card. Donations benefit the education of our diocesan seminarians.

We will have fresh beautiful flowers to celebrate all mothers on Mother's Day weekend (May 11/12). If you would like to donate toward the cost, please pick up and return a "Mother's Day Mass Remembrance" envelope (by the bulletins). You may honor your mother, grandmother, aunt, etc, both living and deceased, but please make sure you check living or deceased on the envelope so that we will know if it's in memory or honor of the person. Please turn in envelopes by Sunday, May 5. The memorials will be listed in the May 12th bulletin.

The Catholic Daughters of the Americas #2778 will sponsor a Bake and Craft Fundraiser Mother's Day weekend May 11/12th in the new Church choir room. Dear friends in Christ,

May the hope, faith and love of the Risen Jesus be with each of you. Last Sunday we celebrated First Holy Communion. Thank you to all the Catechists who prepared them and to their parents who want their children to live in the life of the Lord and have faithfully brought them to faith formation classes every week. Thank you also for the Christian Mothers who prepared the dinner reception for those who made their First Holy Communion and their families last Sunday. Everything was delicious and it was enjoyed by all.

Many of our college students are having final exams and are graduating. It can be a very interesting time in their lives. I pray that each of them may know God's will for them and that they will always seek the guidance and wisdom of the Holy Spirit in their life. Please keep all of them in your prayers.

In today's readings we hear much about love. Jesus tells us that we are to keep His commandment and the main commandment is love. What is love? Love is more than a feeling. Love is more than an emotion. Love is a choice we make to give of ourselves unselfishly to and for the good of another, just as Jesus did on the cross. Sometimes I hear people say, "I don't feel like I love that person anymore." Only when we live by feelings and emotions can we make such a statement. True love loves the other person no matter what happens and no matter how they feel. It is a choice we make. True love always tells the truth. True love always is honest. True love says what needs to be said in the spirit of charity even though it may mean that the person that it is said to may not speak to us again. True love does not talk down to other people. True love speaks with humility. True love desires the other person to go to heaven. This means supporting the other person in living a life of faithfulness to Jesus and to His Church. This means not being afraid to tell the other person when they are straying away from Jesus and His Church and gently leading them to do what is right, even though doing what is right may be inconvenient or difficult. In order to do this, we must overcome our own feelings and emotions as Jesus did. This can be very difficult when we are insecure or when we are a very "needy" people. But, with the help of the Holy Spirit, we can do it. We just need to have faith and trust in our Lord.

As we honor our Blessed Mother, Mary, during this month of May, don't forget to pray the rosary daily reflecting upon the mysteries for each day. In doing so we grow closer to her Son, Jesus, and we grow stronger in our faith.

Usually at this time of year I am asked several times whether it is o.k. for a Catholic to attend the wedding of a Catholic in the church of another denomination or in a garden or hall or other non-sacred place. Even though I have printed this in the bulletin several times, it seems it is necessary to print it again. First of all, all Catholics are obligated to be married in a Catholic church. If they do not, then they are committing a serious sin and can no longer receive Holy Communion. If the Catholic is marrying a non-Catholic and the couple wants to get married in a church of another religious denomination, the couple may ask for permission from the bishop who will normally grant such permission. For Catholics, the Sacraments are celebrated in the church. Permission is not usually given to have a wedding in a garden, hall or any other non-sacred place. Catholics may attend weddings of two non-Catholics, i.e. anyone who was not baptized in the Catholic Church, wherever the wedding takes place because non-Catholics are not under the obligation of Catholic Law. So, if you are invited to a wedding of a Catholic to a non-Catholic that is being held in a church other than a Catholic church, and you are unsure about whether it is o.k. to attend or not, ask the couple getting married or ask their parents, whether they have received permission from the bishop to have their wedding in that church. If not, then you should not attend because the Catholic who is getting married in the non-Catholic church or in a garden or hall, etc., is committing sin, and you do not want to support or participate in their act of sin. Faithfulness to Jesus is the most important thing of all.

May the blessings of our Lord be with each of you.

Fr. Stephen Nesrsta, farář

K ZAMYŠLENÍ: Není v Bibli tolik míst, kde by se napřímou psalo o tom, jak moc Bůh miluje svůj lid. O to cennější jsou úryvky, ze kterých to jasně plyne. Takovým je i dnešní evangelium. Ježíš miluje své učedníky, jako jeho miluje Bůh Otec. Není větší lásky než mezi Bohem Otcem a Synem! Ba dokonce jsme podle evangelia Kristovou radostí! Jestliže za nás položil život, prokázal nám tu největší lásku. Z řečeného plyne, že máme co do činění s nesmírnou Boží láskou! Možná by stálo za to alespoň chvíli setrvat nad tímto jedinečným faktem.

Sexto Domingo de Pascua: Este domingo, todas las lecturas nos recuerdan que estamos atrapados en el gran misterio del amor. La misma vida y esencia de Dios es el amor; y Dios, quien nos llama y nos ama primero –y antes de que estemos listos para responderle o seamos capaces de responderle- derrama su amor sobre nosotros con generosidad indescriptible. Ya que Dios ha sido tan generoso con nosotros, ¿cómo podríamos ser tacaños – especialmente ya que el amor viene de Dios y no de nosotros? Estamos invitados a recibir, a atesorar este gran don y entonces a vivirlo y propagarlo en todo el mundo, especialmente hacia aquellos quienes son los más difíciles de amar, nuestros enemigos.
