New Weekend Mass Schedule

Starting August 4, A.D. 2024

Saturday 5:00 p.m.

Sunday 7:30 a.m.

9:30 a.m. & 11:30 a.m.

Dear Brothers and Sisters, I pray that God will bless our biological and spiritual fathers. May our fathers and our priests continue to guide us ever closer to God as they follow the example of St. Joseph, a faithful husband to Mary and a caring and loving protector of Jesus. St. Joseph, pray for us! Amen.

~Bishop Joe S. Vásquez

With adding another Sunday Mass time beginning in August, we are in much need of more parishioners to serve as ministers! Please prayerfully consider participating more fully in the Mass as a Lector, Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion (EMHC), Homebound EMHC, Altar Server, Head Usher, and/or Gift Bearer. For questions, or to volunteer, contact the parish office at 512-863-3020 or speak to Fr. Stephen.

Our annual Father's Day CEF Enrollment Drive will be held this weekend of June 15/16 for anyone wishing to enroll their fathers, grandfathers, sons, etc. Enrollments for other occasions/persons can also be made. The usual offering is $2 per person, per card, and benefits the education of our diocesan seminarians.

Catholic Daughters of the Americas will hold their monthly meeting on Monday, June 17 at 6:15 p.m. in the RE building. All ladies of the parish are invited to attend.

We will have our monthly Building Fund Collection next weekend (March 23/24). Thank you in advance for your generosity.

KJT Society # 55 will be having a bake sale the weekend of June 29/30 following all Masses. Proceeds will help offset the cost of the society's parish/community activities.

Sts. Cyril and Methodius Parish in Granger will host a Chicken Dinner on June 30 from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the parish hall. Plates are $15 each and will include fried chicken, cole slaw, green beans, noodles and peaches. All are welcome!

Parish Bazaar Update

Our annual Bazaar will be held on Sunday, September 15. And, while it seems a long way off, there is a great deal of work that goes into this fun day of activities and good food. Agnes Brousseau is stepping down as bazaar chair. We thank Agnes for her service during the past 2 years. We would like to form a small committee to help oversee the organizational work needed for our September event. We are blessed to have a great group of function leaders, so the work is much easier than you think. If you are interested in being a part of this effort or have any questions, please contact the parish office. New parish members are always welcome and encouraged to join in the fun! It's a great way to meet and get involved with your new parish family!

Help us get ready for VBS, come craft with us.
TUE. JUNE 11 & 18 10AM IN RE BUILDING

"THE HIGHER WE GO THE BETTER WE SHALL HEAR THE VOICE OF CHRIST" PIER GIORGIO FRASSATI

Are you or do you know someone who: Is longing to be Catholic? Are ready to return home? Or just want to know what Catholics believe?

Maybe you or someone you know is feeling a tug in your hearts. It is the Holy Spirit calling you home. This summer, we will have 3 basic classes to explore that calling. This is not RCIA, it is an inquiry class. Classes will be held June 11 & 18 and July 9 at 7:00pm in the RE Building. For more information, contact Virginia at htcdre@holyltrinityofcornhill.org

Dear friends in Christ,

Peace be with you! Today is Father's Day. We honor all fathers, especially those who live their lives in faithfulness to Jesus Christ and to His Church. All fathers are called to be living examples of Jesus to their children. All fathers are called to assist their children in attaining eternal life, which means helping them to live a life of faithfulness to Jesus, correcting and encouraging as needed. May God bless all fathers in their awesome responsibility. Happy Father's Day!

In today's Gospel Jesus compares the Kingdom of God to the sowing of seeds and to the mustard seed. Jesus speaks of how the Kingdom of God grows and how God's Kingdom will grow in this world, especially through His Church. Jesus sowed the seed with His apostles and from that tiny beginning the Catholic Church has grown to more than 1.2 billion members. The Church continues to grow each year. We all need to pray that we will give faithful witness to Jesus so that others may see God's Kingdom within us and choose to follow Jesus in the Church that He established.

Some people ask the question if Jesus really intended to establish a Church. An article written by Fritz Tuttle and Kenneth D. Whitehead helps to explain this question. Below are some excerpts from the article:

[Every Christian believes that Jesus Christ established and sustains a community of faith, hope and love for all believers. This community we call His Church. The Church that Christ founded is the Catholic Church which has a formal earthly structure established by Christ and which continues under His authority and protection.

In the Old Testament we see God's continual involvement in the lives of the Israelites through appointed prophets. God delivered, instructed and admonished the Israelites. He made His motions in a visible, specific and formal way. He always did so through human hands, mouths, feet, minds and wills. God established a law and a means for executing it.

In concert with His redemptive act, Jesus did three things that established the framework of His Church. First, He chose humans to carry out His work. He appointed Peter to be the visible head of the Church. Jesus said to Peter, "You are Rock and on this rock I will build my Church." (Matthew 16: 18) Jesus said "build," as in to create a structure. Jesus built His structure on specifically chosen human beings Peter and the apostles.

Second, Jesus gave Peter and the apostles the power and authority to carry out His work. "Whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven." (Matthew 16:19; 18:18) "Receive the Holy Spirit, whose sins you forgive, they are forgiven, whose sins you retain, they are retained." (John 20:23)

Third, Jesus gave Peter and the apostles commands as to what that work should be. At the last supper, He commanded, "Do this in memory of Me." (Luke 22:19) He commanded them to "Make disciples of all nations" (Matthew 28:19), and to "Go into the whole world and proclaim the Gospel to every creature." (Mark 16:15)

The early Church was structured in a hierarchical manner as it is today. We see in Acts, chapter 15 how the apostles and the elders came together under the leadership of St. Peter to decide the question of what was required of Gentiles. We also see how St. Peter was regarded as the head of the Church when St. Paul, "Went up to Jerusalem to confer with Kephas [Peter] and remained with him fifteen days." (Galatians 1:18) There is no Scriptural evidence of independent local churches.

In the letters to Timothy and Titus, we find qualifications and rules for Bishops, Presbyters (Priests), and Deacons, Bishops (episcopi) have the care of multiple congregations and appoint, ordain, and discipline priests and deacons. They sometimes appear to be called "evangelists" in the New Testament. Examples of first-century bishops include Timothy and Titus (1 Tim. 5:19–22; 2 Tim. 4:5; Titus 1:5).

Priests (presbuteroi) are also known as "presbyters" or "elders." In fact, the English term "priest" is simply a contraction of the Greek word presbuteros. They have the responsibility of teaching, governing, and providing the sacraments in a given congregation (1 Tim. 5:17; Jas. 5:14–15).

Deacons (diakonoi) are the assistants of the bishops and are responsible for teaching and administering certain Church tasks, such as the distribution of food (Acts 6:1–6)(1 Tim. 8-10,12-13).

The Catholic Church is the only church that can claim to have been founded by Christ personally. Every other church traces its lineage back to a mere human person such as Martin Luther or John Wesley or some other so-called "reformer." The Catholic Church can trace its lineage back to Jesus Christ who appointed St. Peter as the first pope. This line of popes has continued for almost 2,000 years. God rules, instructs and sanctifies His people through His Church. Under her teaching office, the Catholic Church preserves the Word of God. She is the custodian, keeper, dispenser and interpreter of teachings of Christ. And she accomplishes this under the protection of the Holy Spirit.]

May all of you have a most blessed week.

K ZAMYŠLENÍ: Nejednou zaslechneme nebo i sami prožijeme strach, jak to dopadne se světem, církví, zdravotnictvím... Mnohdy tu důvody k obavám jsou, vždyť nic není neměnné. Někdy se ale do takového strachu promítne naše vlastní smýšlení. Může tak ukázat, že žijeme s pocitem, že všechno záleží jen na nás, našem výkonu a bez nás se svět zhroutí. To je obrovský omyl. Boží království roste, ať se nám to líbí nebo ne, ať ho někdo boří nebo podporuje. Je třeba přiložit ruku k dílu, pomoci, ale pozor na všechny, kteří se označují za zachránce světa! Tím jediným Zachránцем je náš Pán. Můžeme být „ustavičně plni důvěry“, i když se věci právě nyní nevyvíjejí pozitivně. (Vira.cz)

XI Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario: Como proclama el Salmo de hoy: "Señor, es bueno darte gracias". Esta semana dediquemos un tiempo diario a dar gracias a nuestro Dios bueno y misericordioso por sus muchas bendiciones.
