"THE HIGHER WE GO THE BETTER WE SHALL HEAR THE VOICE OF CHRIST" PIER GIORGIO FRASSATI

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

May we seek to develop a just society built on the understanding that each of us has been created in God's image and likeness; therefore, each person has certain rights that must be respected. Moved by God's law and activated by his grace, may we continue to protect the weakest and most vulnerable in our society. I ask for the intercession of Pope St. John Paul II who valiantly showed us the beauty and dignity of every stage of human life.

~Bishop Joe S. Vásquez

Cedarbrake retreats

A women's weekend retreat entitled Perfectly Yourself will be offered June 28-30 at Cedarbrake Catholic Retreat Center in Temple. Deep within each of us is a hunger for more fulfillment, more power, more control. At the depth of this insatiable hunger is the desire for connection and union with God; it can also manifest itself as a desire to be more perfectly yourself. This retreat, led by Beverly Collin, will explore the five lessons of becoming your perfect self. Beverly Collin was the assistant director at Cedarbrake for 16 years. The costs are $295 for a private room, $255 per person for a shared room and $150 for commuters. For more information, visit www.austindioocese.org/cedarbrake or call (254) 780-2436.

A Summer Silent Retreat will be held July 12-17 at Cedarbrake Catholic Retreat Center in Temple. This retreat is an opportunity to learn more about God and yourself through the gift of silence. Talks, Mass, adoration, and confession will be part of this retreat. One may choose from two to five nights. Father Harry Dean and Brian Egan will lead this retreat. The cost varies depending on the number of nights. For more information, visit www.austindioocese.org/cedarbrake or call (254) 780-2436.

Dear friends in Christ,

May the love of our Lord be with each of you. Mark your calendars for Sunday, August 18. Bishop Joe Vásquez will be here to celebrate the 11:30 am Mass. After Mass he will bless the new grotto to Our Lady of Hostýn. Everyone is invited for the Mass and blessing.

In today's gospel Jesus brings calm to the storm. The disciples tell Jesus, before He calms the storm, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" After Jesus calms the storm He asks the disciples, "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" We, like the disciples, are terrified when there is a storm in our life, whether it be a storm caused by the weather, or another kind of storm, like illness, disease, physical disability, injury, divorce or other crisis. Sometimes we create our own storms in life and then blame everyone else for them. If we could live our life in complete faithfulness to Jesus and His Church we could avoid most of these storms. Many storms are caused by the decisions that we make in life because we make them not with sound judgment, but, we make too many decisions based on our feelings and emotions. Usually these decisions do not turn out very good. No matter how the storm in our life may have begun we often ask, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" Jesus always asks the Father to give us what we need to handle these storms in our life. May we always put our faith and trust in Him, know that He is with us. By putting it all in His hands we can live through these storms in calm and in peace even though our feelings and emotions may try to tear us apart. Ask our Lord to help you have the peace and calm you are seeking.

A few weeks ago, on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Jesus, I spoke about how we should try to show proper respect and reverence when we come to Mass. That is why we ask you to make sure you are properly dressed, no shorts or torn blue jeans or other torn slacks. When you come to Mass you should never come late, you should come early to spend some time in prayer before Mass. Also, you should never leave Mass early, unless you are doing something for God here at the church, or if you have become ill. So, you should stay until we have prayed the final prayer after the recessional song. Thank you for being a people of faith who care about the way you worship our Lord.

Also, we ask that you are careful when you come to receive Holy Communion. Make an altar for the Lord with your hands or receive the host on your tongue. If receiving on the hands, do not grab the host. You are to receive it in the palm of your hand. If you wish to receive kneeling, then you should kneel at the Communion rail. If you are carrying a baby or small child, you should receive on the tongue. That is why I say "receive on the tongue please". So, don't get offended when I or, one of the Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, ask you to do so. All these suggestions or guidelines are meant to help you think of Who it is you are receiving and to show proper respect to Him.

May all of you have a most blessed and week. Stay cool!

Fr. Stephen Nestrta, farář

K ZAMYŠLENÍ: „Proč se bojíte?“, říká Ježíš vyděšeným učedníkům. A není divu, ve tmě se jejich loď potápěla pod náparem vichřice. Není snadné uvěřit, že Ježíš má moc utišit bouři, že je spolehlivým Mistrem, pevným bodem vesmíru, před kterým i zlo musí padnout na kolena. Je obtížné tomu uprostřed divokého světa věřit, ale lze si to ověřit! Buď vlastní zkušeností, pokud se zkusíme o víru skutečně opřít, z dějin, anebo ze svědectví jiných lidí. Stálo by za to slyšet jiné křesťany z našeho společenství, kteří se o Boha opřeli a zažili to, co učedníci: moře zmlklo a nastalo úplné ticho. Zkusme si sami vzpomenout, kdy se Bůh v našem životě o nás postaral?

XII Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario: En la carta de Pablo a los Corintios, él comienza diciendo "El amor de Cristo nos obliga". De hecho, el amor de Cristo por nosotros nos obliga a amar a los demás, a proclamar el Evangelio, a alimentar al hambriento, a ayudar a aquellos que están heridos o enfermos, a aconsejar a los oprimidos y a proteger a los inocentes ¿Cómo le obliga el amor de Cristo hoy?
