Today we honor Mary under the title of our Lady of Sorrows. Mary's heart was pierced with a sword, many times, most notably, at the Foot of the Cross.

The Sorrowful Mother is also a symbol of the many mothers who feel they cannot continue their pregnancies, as well as those who have aborted a child. Mary intercedes for them today, and so must we all.

Let us pray to our Lady of sorrows. Pray for us, and for all mothers who bear pains of body and soul.

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

The preferential option for the poor and vulnerable means that we put the needs of the poor and vulnerable first. We are called to respond to their needs even though they have no way to repay us. As Catholics we must speak out on their behalf and not be afraid to raise our voices and advocate for them, so they are never taken advantage of. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches us, "The Church's love for the poor ... is inspired by the Gospel of the Beatitudes, of the poverty of Jesus, and of his concern for the poor." (CCC, 2444) In our encounters with the poor and vulnerable may we recognize the face of Christ.

Dear friends in Christ,

May the peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. We welcome all of our guests this weekend who have come for our annual Pariah Bazaar. We hope you will have a wonderful meal and an enjoyable day with us. Thank you for coming to support Holy Trinity Parish.

In today's readings St. James tells us that faith without works is dead. If we say we have faith, then it must be seen by the works that we do, otherwise our faith is of no use and will not assist us in entering the Kingdom of Heaven. There is no such thing as a "faith alone" salvation. Sacred Scripture makes this very clear. Faith and works must go together if we are to truly be followers of Jesus. In the Gospel today St. Peter makes a profession of faith as he tells Jesus, "You are the Christ." Even as he makes this bold profession of faith his human nature tries to interfere with his faith as he does not want to see Jesus suffer and die. The same is true in today's day and time for us as we struggle with our human nature and many times think only as human beings do and not as God. May our faith sustain us in these struggles against what is true and what is according to the ways of God.

On Saturday, September 21, at the 7:30 am Mass, we will celebrate the Feast of St. Matthew, Apostle and Evangelist. In the "Chosen" series he is presented as a very interesting character. A very intelligent and questioning young man. He was a tax collector, also known as a publican. These people were not liked by the Jews. Catholicculture.org gives us the following information about Matthew: [One day, while seated at his table of books and money, Jesus looked at Matthew and said two words: "Follow me." This was all that was needed to make Matthew rise, leaving his pieces of silver to follow Christ. His original name, "Levi," in Hebrew signifies "Adhesion" while his new name in Christ, Matthew, means "Gift of God." The only other outstanding mention of Matthew in the Gospels is the dinner party for Christ and His companions to which he invited his fellow tax-collectors. The Jews were surprised to see Jesus with a publican, but Jesus explained that he had come "not to call the just, but sinners."] Come and celebrate his feast day with us at Mass.

May God's blessings be upon you all.

In Christ, Fr. Stephen Nerssta, farāj

K ZAMYŠLENÍ: Petrovo nadšení z Ježíšových zázraků je celkem pochopitelné, ale Pán nasměrovává pozornost apoštolů jinam. Aby poznali nejen, co je skutečná Boží moc, ale především aby poznali vztah s Bohem, musí pro Boha „ztratit hlavu“. „Kdo svůj život ztratí pro mne...“ Dát pro Ježíše vlastní život? Není to přehnaný požadavek? Když lidé vstupují do manželství, berou se z lásky. Těší se na hezké chvíle společného života. Ale manželství je také „vydání“ sebe sama milovanému člověku, tedy „ztracení sebe pro něj“. A vůči Bohu to není jiné!

24to Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario: La familia de fe nunca puede cerrar los ojos a las desigualdades socioeconómicas de aquellos que sufren alrededor de nosotros. Si pertenecemos a Cristo, debemos siempre expresar una preocupación especial por los marginados. Expresar preocupación pone nuestra fe en práctica tal como la epístola de Santiago nos recuerda, "La Fe sin trabajo está muerta".
