Parish Mission Prayer

Prayer for the Success of a Mission O Jesus, Most Holy Redeemer, our Master, and our King, it is to Your Sacred Heart, that ocean of love, mercy and goodness, that we owe the inestimable blessing of a Mission. Touched with compassion at the sight of our miseries and the eternal unhappiness that threatens us, You have resolved to save us. The missionary who is coming to us is Your representative; in Your person he will break for us, the bread of God's Word and will bring us the joy of forgiveness. Grant, O Lord, that we may be faithful to your grace and correspond zealously with the advances of your mercy. Let the preaching of Your eternal truths enlighten and enliven our minds, and deeply move our hearts, so that we may realize our shortcomings and sincerely repent of them. Grant the light of faith to poor souls plunged in the darkness of ignorance and error. To those who have saddened You by a wicked life, give the grace of a sincere conversion. Bestow fresh fervor upon the lukewarm, and upon the just true progress in the way of virtue. Send forth Your Holy Spirit upon all of us, and the face of this Parish shall be renewed. And you, O Mary, Immaculate Virgin and Mother of Perpetual Help, you are the refuge and advocate of poor sinners; the more guilty they are, the more claim they have upon your tenderness. It is for this reason that we make bold to implore your powerful and motherly protection with all confidence. Our salvation is in your hands, plead our cause and intercede for us with your divine Son. Amen.

Dear friends in Christ,

Monday is Veteran's Day. Please pray for all veterans who have served our country by serving in the Armed Forces. Monday is also the feast of St. Martin. Martin lived from 316 AD to 397 AD. He was a soldier and had a conversion to Christ. He refused to fight so he was jailed and eventually released. He became bishop of Tours, France in 371 AD. He loved and cared for the poor of his diocese. May we follow his example and do the same. St. Martin is also the patron saint of soldiers and wine producers of France.

Wednesday we celebrate the feast day of St. Frances Xavier Cabrini. Frances Xavier Cabrini was the first United States citizen to be canonized. Refused admission to the religious order which had educated her to be a teacher, she began charitable work at the House of Providence Orphanage in Cadogno, Italy. In September 1877, she made her vows there and took the religious habit. When the bishop closed the orphanage in 1880, he named Frances prioress of the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart. Seven young women from the orphanage joined her. Since her early childhood in Italy, Frances had wanted to be a missionary in China but, at the urging of Pope Leo XIII, Frances went west instead of east. She traveled with six sisters to New York City to work with the thousands of Italian immigrants living there. She found disappointment and difficulties with every step. When she arrived in New York, the house intended to be her first orphanage in the United States was not available. The archbishop advised her to return to Italy. But Frances, truly a valiant woman, departed from the archbishop's residence all the more determined to establish that orphanage. And she did. In 35 years, Frances Xavier Cabrini founded 67 institutions dedicated to caring for the poor, the abandoned, the uneducated and the sick. Seeing great need among Italian immigrants who were losing their faith, she organized schools and adult education classes. As a child, she was always frightened of water, unable to overcome her fear of drowning. Yet, despite this fear, she traveled across the Atlantic Ocean more than 30 times. She died of malaria in her own Columbus Hospital in Chicago. (FranciscanMedia.org)

Please continue to pray for the Souls in Purgatory during this month of November as we remember those who have died. May they rest in peace.

Thank you to everyone who has sent in their pledge to the Diocese of Austin for the Catholic Services Appeal. Your generosity supports hundreds of various programs throughout the Diocese of Austin. If you have not sent your pledge, please do so as soon as possible. All pledges count, whether they are a financial contribution or one of prayer. Both are needed so mail in that pledge envelope. Thank you.

Our Parish Mission with Fr. Ben Cameron, CPM, will begin next Sunday, November 17, at 7:00 pm. Pray for the spiritual success of this Parish Mission so that we may all grow closer to our Lord. Please see the schedule and other information on the back of this bulletin. Let us give Fr. Cameron a warm welcome. May the Holy Spirit speak through him to all of us.

Our readings today speak to us about giving with a generous and joyful attitude. Notice that in the first reading from the Book of Kings and also from the gospel taken from the Gospel of Mark, these women give all that they had. What trust and faith in God they must have had in order to give all that they had to give. It reminds me of our ancestors who gave so much to build the churches we have today. Most of them gave not from any surplus monies, but they gave until they could give no more. It seems that in today's world many people only want to give when they have something left over and giving to God seems to come last in their priorities. I am very proud of the parishioners here at Holy Trinity Parish who do have that same faith and trust in God and give with a generous and joyful spirit. It is a sign that we truly believe in God's love and in His generosity to us. May all of us grow to have such faith. Thank for the witness you give to God's presence in your life.

May all of you have a most blessed week.

In Christ, Fr. Stephen Nestrta, farář

K ZAMYŠLENÍ: „Jde jim zase o peníze,“ můžeme slyšet při vyslechnutí dnešního evangelia. Ale pozorný čtenář dobře postřehl, že právě o ně vůbec nešlo. Proč Pán sleduje přispěvatele, když šlo o ryze osobní věc? Leží mu na srdci učedníci. Brzy s ním ztratí bezprostřední kontakt. Budou vědět, jak mají sami ve svém soukromém životě žít poselství evangelia? Příkladem je vdova, žena bez zajištění, které tehdy poskytoval manžel. Nyní je bez příjmů. A ona dala všechno, co měla! Vzdala se všech jistot. Pán poznal, že motivací bylo naprosté odevzdání se Bohu, naprostá důvěra a víra v Hospodinovu moc. Tento obraz bude apoštoly doprovázet, až Ježíš nebude s nimi. Takto mají žít i oni. (vira.cz)

XXXII Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario: "Aunque en general es difícil marcar la diferencia entre lo que se necesita justamente y lo que es requerido por testimonio profético, debemos ciertamente mantenernos firmes a este principio: nuestra fe nos demanda una cierta frugalidad, y la Iglesia está obligada a vivir y administrar sus propios bienes de tal manera que el Evangelio sea proclamado a los pobres" (Sínodo Mundial de Obispos, Justice in the World, 47).

Fr. Ben Cameron was born in Kokomo, Indiana, and grew up as a member of St. Patrick Catholic Church in that city. During his junior high and high school years, he attended a small Christian school that was operated by a local Baptist church. It was in that non-Catholic environment, where his faith was often challenged, that he began to study the Catholic Faith. Fr. Ben is a 1991 graduate of Christendom College, a small Catholic liberal arts college in Front Royal, Virginia, where he became involved in a lay apostolate known as the Legion of Mary, which awakened his desire to share his Catholic Faith with others. Upon receiving his degree in Political Science and History, Fr. Ben planned a career in the political arena, but soon found that God had other plans. He joined the Fathers of Mercy in 1992, studied theology at Holy Apostles Seminary in Cromwell, Connecticut, and was ordained to the Holy Priesthood on May 31, 1997. Fr. Ben has served as Vocation Director, Treasurer, Mission Director and Assistant General of the Fathers of Mercy as a full-time parish mission preacher and retreat master (2000-2018), and as pastor of St. Helen's Parish, Glasgow, Kentucky, and its mission church, Our Lady of the Caves in Horse Cave, Kentucky (2018-2022). He is once again serving as a full-time parish mission preacher and retreat master.
