Holy Trinity Prayer Tree: That each of us will do what is necessary to be prepared for the Lord's return ... and for the intentions in our Prayer Journal ... we pray to the Lord.
THE PRAYER JOURNAL IS NOW LOCATED IN THE VESTIBULE OF THE CHURCH!

The annual Rural Life Mass, celebrated to acknowledge our farmers and ranchers and to give thanks for God's gift of harvest, will be hosted here, by our parish, on Tuesday, August 13. Mass will be held in the church at 6:00 p.m. and will be celebrated by Bishop Joe Vásquez and concelebrated by all attending priests. A meal and fellowship will then follow in the PAC Building for all.

Holy Day of Obligation: Thursday, August 15: Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Please make every effort to join us at one of the Masses offered for the Holy Day, when we honor the Assumption of Mary into Heaven and the fulfillment of Jesus' promise that those who are faithful to Him will share in His resurrection. A Vigil Mass will be celebrated at SSCM in Granger on Wednesday, August 14, at 6:30 p.m. and four Masses will be offered on August 15 (two here and two at SSCM – see schedule on the front page of the bulletin).

PARISH OFFICE: This week, the office will be open on Monday - Tuesday (August 12-13) and closed Wednesday – Friday (August 14-16) for the Holy Day and for a little vacation time. Bulletin announcements need to be turned in by Monday at 3:00 p.m.

The Holy Trinity Parish Prayer Campaign for Church Vocations is open to all parishioners. For information, or to sign-up, contact the parish office. This week, the crucifix will be in the home of the Tim & Gwyn Vrabel family. Next week, it will be in the home of the Mark & Debbie Klaus family. Please pray for vocations.

CCE CLASSES START IN 3 WEEKS AND WE ARE STILL IN NEED OF ONE MORE CATECHIST - for the 5th grade class. If you have reservations about tackling it alone, consider teaming up with a friend for support and ideas. If interested, or for more information, contact the parish office.

We will have a Catechist Meeting on Thursday, August 22, at 7:00 p.m., in the RE Building. (Dessert will be provided.) If you are interested in possibly becoming a Catechist, please join us to ask questions and/or get an idea of what's involved.

We could still use a couple more Lectors for the Sunday morning Mass. For information, or to volunteer, please call the office.

**The Bazaar Chairperson List is posted on the bulletin board and on our website. Please contact the appropriate people if you would like to volunteer for any events/areas. WE NEED MANY VOLUNTEERS TO MAKE THIS DAY ENJOYABLE AND SUCCESSFUL!

**The sign-up poster for Bazaar Kitchen Donations (and one for Kitchen Workers) is on the table in the vestibule of the church. There are also boxes in the vestibule of the church for donations for the Silent Auction, Bingo, Toy Walk and Ring Toss (2 liter sodas). Live Auction donations are needed and can be directed to Jacqueline Danek at 512-423-2598.

**Don't forget to stop after Mass to pick up your Raffle Tickets (saves on postage later).

** K.J.Z.T. St. Agnes Society #15 will sponsor the Kolache/Sweets booths at the Bazaar. Kolache bakers are needed. Packages of trays are available in the vestibule. If you have questions, call Dorothy Klepac at 512-746-2902, or Barbara Danek at 512-746-2015.

Dear friends in Christ,

Praised be Jesus Christ! It has been a hot week. We are thankful that it is not as hot as it could be!

This week we will celebrate a Holy Day of Obligation --- the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary into Heaven. Every Catholic is to attend Mass, either at the Vigil Mass on August 14, or one of the four (4) Masses offered on August 15. Please see the Mass times on the top of the bulletin – for both here and for SSCM in Granger – to find an appropriate time to join us in honoring the Assumption of Mary into Heaven and the fulfillment of Jesus' promise that those who are faithful to Him will share in His resurrection.

In today's second reading, we hear about the faith of the ancients. Chapter 11 of Hebrews speaks about the faith of Abel, Enoch, Noah, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph, Moses and many more. Hebrews says that "Faith is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen". Even though none of those mentioned here ever saw the promised Messiah, they had hope that eventually God's promise to His people would be fulfilled. Their faith was based on what they had personally experienced of God's presence in their life. They knew that what they hoped for and what they could not see would one day become a reality. They allowed themselves to be led by God even though they did not know where He was taking them, as we heard about Abraham in this reading today. They were always prepared for the realization of the Kingdom of God. This is what Jesus asks of us in today's Gospel as He says, "You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come".

We live our lives in faith with the hope, that is certain, of the realization of the Second Coming of Jesus into the world and of our ultimate resurrection with Him. In faith we believe that Jesus comes to us every day in the Eucharist we receive in Holy Communion. In faith we believe He walks with us in our daily lives. And in faith we believe that He will come again. In the same way He ascended into Heaven, He will descend once again upon the earth. Are you prepared for this? Do you live your life each day with this hope? Let us pray, daily, for an increase in faith so that we will be prepared to meet our Lord when He comes again and when we receive Him in Holy Communion.

In Christ,
Fr. Stephen Nesrsta, farář
