The Parish Office will be closed this Wednesday, July 22.

Registration for our 2015-16 CCE classes is still ongoing. It would be wonderful to have all of our parish children registered before class begins so that we have most of the supplies in hand that will be needed. Registration forms are available by the bulletin board in the church and are also on our website. Please contact Lucille D'Elia at 512-318-5149, or htcdre@yahoo.com, for more information or questions. We are also in need of more CCE program volunteers - anyone interested in helping, in any way, are encouraged to call Lucille.

All middle school and high school students are invited to OPEN GYM in the PAC Bldg next Sunday, July 26. Doors will open at 4:00 p.m. --- there will be lots of play time and a fun scavenger hunt. The Finance Council will meet on Thursday, July 30, at 7:00 p.m. in the RE Bldg. All parishioners are invited to attend.

Donations are still very much appreciated to help pay for the additional statues that were restored (our nativity scene and a statue of the Risen Jesus), which cost $4,750.00. You might consider donating in memory or honor of a loved one. You can put your donation in an envelope, mark it "Statue Restoration", and drop it in the collection basket. Thank you for your generosity.

2015 BAZAAR INFO

RAFFLE TICKETS are here and are now being handed out after our weekend Masses. In your raffle ticket envelope, you will also find two letters. One explains quite a bit about the Bazaar and our needs and the other explains the Live Auction and it's needs. Please read them both and prayerfully consider all that you can do for the parish to make our annual Bazaar a successful one again this year!

Many volunteers will be needed for all areas of the Bazaar – anywhere from setting up before hand, to working on the day of, or for cleaning it all up the day after! It is never too early to volunteer to help!! Many hands make light work! A list of the Function Leaders is on the bulletin board. Look to see where you want to work and take a minute to call the Function Leader(s) for more information or to sign-up!

Items for the live and silent auctions, toy walk prizes, and 2 liter sodas for the ring toss, can be donated at any time. We have room to store items if you find them on sale now and want to turn them in early --- call or bring them by during office hours.

Dear friends in Christ,

This weekend, we welcome three transitional deacons from the Czech Republic. Their names are: David Tyleček from the diocese of Ostrava-Opava, Jaroslav Laštovička from the diocese of Brno, and, Jiří Luňák from the archdiocese of Olomouc. They will stay with us for about 5 weeks. I will once again be taking them to various activities and events during their stay with us. Your patience and understanding with my schedule during this time is most appreciated. May our visitors find a warm welcome here as we enjoy their presence among us. Thanks to all of you for the kindness and love you always offer to our visitors each year.

In today's Gospel, it is written, "When he (Jesus) disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things." Also, in today's first reading from the Prophet Jeremiah, it is written, "Woe to the shepherds who mislead and scatter the flock of my pasture, says the Lord." Jeremiah is warning the shepherds, the religious leaders of his day, that they have led the people astray and are not teaching what should be taught. They have given into the ways of the world and the likes of the people and no longer speak the Truth of God. This was happening not only at the time of Jeremiah, but also at the time of Jesus. This is happening in our own day as well. So many pastors, preachers and even priests and religious sisters are not teaching the Truth, but instead are giving into the mindset of people today who want to hear that they can say and do anything they want and still go to heaven. These are not faithful shepherds of the flock. They are leading the sheep into the midst of wolves and the devil is very happy about it all as he is stealing many souls for himself.

If you want to know if someone's preaching and teaching is authentic and correct, read the Catechism of the Catholic Church and the Bible to see if they are preaching and teaching in accordance to what the Church really teaches and what the Church has taught for the past two thousand years. If the teaching is in conflict with that of the Catholic Church, then it is not of God, but of the evil one. It is to Peter that Jesus gave the keys to the Kingdom of Heaven, and it is to Peter that Jesus told that the gates of hell would not prevail against it (the Church). For some people this is difficult to accept. But, it is what Jesus has told and revealed to us in the Bible, and Jesus is the Truth, the Way and the Life. Either we accept what He has said, or we reject it and do as we please. So many people are doing as they please and are rejecting the message of Jesus in the name of tolerance, or what they say is compassion. Allowing people to do wrong and allowing them to go down the road to hell is not compassion. May we have the assistance of the Holy Spirit to help us to always proclaim the Truth and to have the courage we need to live the Truth so that souls may be converted to the true love of Jesus.

May all of you have a most blessed week.
