Dear friends in Christ,

May the peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. We welcome all of our guests this weekend who have come for our annual Pariah Bazaar. We hope you will have a wonderful meal and an enjoyable day with us. Thank you for coming to support Holy Trinity Parish.

Our Religious Education Program began two weeks ago. I thank all of you parents for bringing your children to learn about the Bible, Jesus Christ and His Church. Parents are always invited and encouraged to attend the Mass at 6:30 p.m. Your presence at Mass is a great sign of support to your children. Please come and join us as we celebrate this awesome gift that our Lord has given to us.

This Wednesday, we will have Altar Server Practice for all current and new Altar Servers. Please encourage your child to be an Altar Server.

Today's gospel teaches us a little lesson about humility. If we are to serve the Lord, whether it be in priesthood, marriage, or in the single life, we must be humble, not bragging about ourselves, nor trying to prove how great we are. This is a challenge for us all. This is really what St. James is saying in the second reading today. St. James gets straight to the point, warning us not to let our passions take control of our lives. Let us reflect upon James 3:17, "But the wisdom from above is first of all pure, then peaceable, gentle, compliant, full of mercy and good fruits, without inconstancy or insincerity." May we try to live our lives with this kind of wisdom, being humble and faithful disciples of our Lord.

May the Lord bless you all with a week filled with His Love.

In Christ, Fr. Stephen Nesrsta, farář
