Dear friends in Christ,

Praised be Jesus Christ! Next weekend, we will celebrate the great feast of All Saints. We will also have our cemetery Mass on Sunday, November 1. Monday, November 2, we celebrate All Souls Day. Please check this bulletin for the times of these Masses. Let us gather together to remember and to pray for our loved ones who have died.

Our Parish Mission begins this Sunday, October 25, at 7:00 pm. Please try to attend each evening with your family and grow together in faith, hope and love. Please note the change in the Mass times for the weekday Masses this week.

In this weekend’s Gospel, Jesus heals Bartimaeus of blindness. Bartimaeus, who was sitting on the side of the road, cries out, “Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me.” When Jesus asked him what he wanted, Bartimaeus says that he wants to see. Jesus heals him of his blindness.

Jesus wants to heal us of our blindness as well. So many people in the world today are blind - they are not able to see that they are committing sin. They are blind to their sinfulness, or maybe they do not want to see that they are sinning because they are happy with the sins they are doing. Do we really want to be healed of the blindness to our sins? Do we want to be healed of our being prejudice against people of a different nationality or race than we are? Do we want to be healed of our addiction to beer or whisky or drugs? Do we want to be healed of the immoral life we are living by living together without being married? Do we want to be healed of using contraception so that we see it for the evil that it really is? Do we want to be healed of engaging in a promiscuous lifestyle? Do we want to be healed of our anger or our hatred of others? Do we want to be healed of laziness? Do we want to be healed of selfishness and pride? This list is really unending.

Let us pray that we can come to Jesus in faith and courage as Bartimaeus did and allow Jesus to heal us of what is unhealthy to our soul and of what is unhealthy to us as human beings created in the image and likeness of God.

We would like to welcome the newest members to the Pastoral Council: Marla Tonn, Billy Beyer and Cynthia Edgar, and we would like to thank those who have finished their term: Pete Zenner, Keith Youngpeter and Emily Kuehne.

Have a blessed week and don’t forget to pray with your family.

In Christ, Fr. Stephen Nestrsta, farář
