Holy Trinity Prayer Tree: For all those who have lost their faith ... and for the intentions in our prayer journal ... we pray to the Lord.

THANK YOU, THANK YOU to all who helped with, and to those who attended, our Bazaar last weekend. Thanks to your time, talent and treasure, the event was a tremendous success and a wonderful day – not to mention the blessing of nice weather! God bless you all and we look forward to doing it all again next year!!

Join us in celebrating Catechetical Sunday today (Sunday, September 22) at the 8:00 a.m. Mass. This year's Catechists will be called forth to be commissioned for their ministry. Catechetical Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each person plays, by virtue of Baptism, in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. It is also an opportunity for all to rededicate themselves to this mission as a community of faith.

The Confraternity of Christian Mothers will meet today (Sunday, September 22) in the RE Building immediately following the 8:00 a.m. Mass. All ladies of the parish are invited!

You are invited to the 68th Annual Cyclone Picnic at St. Joseph's Church today (Sunday, September 22). Meal of Fried Chicken & Sausage served from 11:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m. at $8 a plate; live auction, games, lots of good family fun.

The Holy Trinity Parish Prayer Campaign for Church Vocations is open to all parishioners. For information, or to sign-up, contact the parish office. This week, the crucifix will be in the home of Jim & Mary Margaret Heuertz. Next week, it will be in the home of Frances Nemeč. Please pray for vocations.

DON'T FORGET to turn in your nominations for the new Pastoral Council members --- deadline is this Monday, September 23. We will conduct a selection of five (5) new members to the Pastoral Council at the next PC meeting on Tuesday, September 24. If you didn't get a Nomination Form, they are available by the bulletins.

CCE: Class on Wednesday, September 25, from 6:30 – 8:00 p.m. Meal served from 5:45 – 6:15 p.m. PRE-K Class: We now have a Pre-K class in our CCE Program. This is for children of the age of 4 – to help get them prepared to enter CCE in Kindergarten and to learn Mass etiquette. They will meet on the 1st and 3rd Wednesdays of each month and will attend Mass with the group. If you are interested in your child attending, please contact Lucille D'Elia at 512-746-4317.

IN HONOR OF OUR NEW PASTOR, WE WILL HAVE A PARISH POTLUCK NEXT SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, AT 5:00 P.M. IN THE PAC BUILDING. All parishioners are welcome and encouraged to attend and we ask that you bring your favorite dish to share with the crowd. Please pass the word around so that all of our parish family can join us for good food and fellowship!

Pro-Life: October is Respect Life Month and one way to help celebrate this is to pick up a BABY BANK from the church, put some coins in it and say a prayer for LIFE each day! The money collected will be forwarded to Pro-Life apostolates such as Gabriel's and Rachel's Projects, our diocesan maternity homes, etc. The Baby Banks are available in the church and should be returned on the last weekend of the month of October.

Be a part of the LIFE CHAIN on Sunday, October 6, to support the Pro-Life movement! Starts at 1:30 p.m. – meet at Crestview Baptist in Georgetown – lasts until 3:30 p.m. For more information, contact Julie Tefft at 512-863-0039.

Mass Intentions: Fr. Stephen will be forwarding some Mass Intentions to the Czech Republic to priests who are in need of them. If you would like to have some sent, please put your Mass Intentions (no specific dates please), with the suggested offering of $5 per Intention, in an envelope marked Czech Republic, in the collection basket.

Dear friends in Christ,

Peace be with you. Thank you to all of you who worked to make the Bazaar a great success. A lot of you worked many hours and some worked all night preparing the BBQ. The meal was absolutely delicious. The weather cooperated to give us a beautiful day and everyone seemed to have a very enjoyable day. May God's blessings be upon all of you for all you have done for your parish and for our Lord.

Thank you also to all who came to the Mass of Installation on Friday evening. I appreciate your prayers and support.

Our Religious Education Program began two weeks ago. I thank all of our parents for bringing their children to learn about the Bible, Jesus Christ, and His Church. Parents are always invited and encouraged to attend the Mass at 7:30 p.m. Your presence at Mass is a great sign of support to your children. Please come and join us as we celebrate this awesome gift that our Lord has given to us.

In today's gospel we read about a steward who was in charge of collecting what the debtors owed his master. This steward was also in charge of his master's property. The steward has squandered some of the property and when his master found out about it his master decided to terminate his employment. The steward acts wisely by making him and his master look good by lowering the amount that the debtors owed his master. He was actually just probably lowering the bills by the amount of commission that he himself would have received. The master commends the steward for acting in a prudent way in making sure he would be liked and probably hired by one of the debtors. Jesus is telling us that we should be equally wise in planning for our future, not in an earthly sense, but in a spiritual sense, preparing ourselves for eternal life. How well are you preparing for eternal life? Is what you are doing now leading you to heaven or to hell? Are you good stewards of your time by giving part of your time to God each day? Do you spend some time praying every day? Do you go to Mass every weekend? Do you go to confession regularly, at least four times a year? Do you do acts of charity for your Church and for others? Do you read the Bible daily? Being good stewards means being able to say "yes" to these questions. If your answer is no to one of these questions, then you are not being the steward God wants you to be. May we all be the best of stewards in our life with God so that we will be with Him now and for all eternity.

In Christ,
Fr. Stephen Nesrsta, farář

In coordination with our Anniversary Celebration, we are having a new Parish Pictorial Directory made. Attached to this bulletin, you will find information on the portrait session sign-up process for the Directory. Please help us to spread the word to all of our parishioners and please make every effort to have your picture taken with us so that we can have a true "parish family album" for all of us to enjoy and use. Please watch the bulletin for more Directory updates and information.
