Dear friends in Christ,

Peace be with you all. Next Sunday is our June Fundraiser. Invite your family and friends for a wonderful dinner and dance. We will also be having an extra Mass at 10:30 a.m. next Sunday.

Today the Church celebrates the Feast of Corpus Christi, the Body and Blood of Christ. Since the time of the Apostles, the Church has believed and taught that Jesus is present, body and blood, soul and divinity, in the Holy Communion that we receive at Mass. The bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Jesus during the consecration in the Eucharistic Prayer. The appearance remains the same, but the substance changes. This is not a symbolic presence – it is the REAL PRESENCE of Jesus. That is why we take such care of the Blessed Sacrament, the Eucharist, and offer to the Real Presence of Jesus our Adoration and Praise. That is why we have our annual Corpus Christi Procession to give a more public witness of our belief in this Real Presence. The early Church Fathers wrote about this presence, as did St. Paul in his letter to the Corinthians (1 Cor. 10:16–17, 11:23–29). May we all be careful of how we speak about the Holy Communion that we receive at Mass. We should speak of it as the Body of Christ and the Blood of Christ, not just bread and wine. And, just as Jesus multiplied the loaves and fishes in today's Gospel, Jesus continues to multiply His presence around the world as Mass is celebrated. He continues to feed and nourish us so that we may have the strength we need to live the life He has given us to live. We pray that one day all Christians will once again believe what the Apostles and the early Church believed about Jesus' Real Presence in Holy Communion.

Tuesday, May 31, we celebrate the Feast Day of The Visitation of the Blessed Virgin Mary. This feast recalls the event of Mary going to the aid of her cousin Elizabeth who was with child. Mary had learned a couple of weeks earlier that she herself was pregnant by the power of the Holy Spirit. Elizabeth is pregnant with her baby, John the Baptizer. Despite Mary's own challenges that she is facing, she goes to Elizabeth to assist her in her time of need until John is born. May we all have the same willingness to go beyond ourselves to assist those in need. Mass will be at 7:00 am.

Friday, June 3, we will celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. I would encourage everyone to attend Mass on this special day. Saturday, June 4, at the morning Mass, we will celebrate the Feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. I encourage everyone to try to honor our Blessed Mother Mary by attending Mass that morning.

Please pray for the priests of the Diocese of Austin who will be meeting Tuesday thru Thursday of this week.

May all of you have a most blessed week.

Fr. Stephen Nestrsta, farář

Has Anyone Ever Hurt You? ... Several years ago, I led the funeral service for a young man named Shawn. We all just loved this kid. Shawn was killed because one of his friends - while driving - made a bad mistake. Shawn's dad, Mike, is a giant of a man. Mike and I were talking in the back of church before the service began when the driver of the car that killed his son was wheeled in on a wheelchair. Had had been released from the hospital to come to the funeral. Mike saw him, said, "Just a minute, Father," and headed over to the young man. Mike towered over his wheelchair and for a second I held my breath. Then I watched as Mike got down on his knees and held out his arms and hugged this sobbing young man, the one who drove the car that killed his son. Though Mike's heart was broken, he did not want to carry hatred or bitterness there.

As has been said, every hurt can either make us bitter or better. You and I? We all get hurt along the way. Is there some anger or hurt that you carry that, instead of becoming bitter, maybe today you could allow God to help you let go? Even part of it?

Two Minutes Toward Meaningful Life

Merciful God, you understand the hurt in my heart. And you love me right where I am. In your love, you don't want me to become bitter. Please help heal and open my wounded heart. Amen.
