PRO- LIFE CORNER

During October, we celebrate "Pro-Life Month". The year has passed quickly and it's been a year of ups and downs for those fighting for human dignity. On the up side, when it comes to abortion, there have been some positive developments over the past several months. The number of abortions is down across the country, the Judicial Branch has moved favorably in the direction of pro-life, Planned Parenthood has suffered some significant setbacks, and the Pro-Life movement has picked up some steam, especially among young people. The pro-life film, "Gosnell", was not only released, but is currently playing at nearly 700 theaters across the country. This would have been unthinkable a decade ago – what a great stride forward in the movement.

Even though this is all refreshing, good news, there continues to be a growing number of challenges on the horizon that require our continued diligence and greater participation among the faithful. While abortions are down, America is still terminating a shocking 600,000 pregnancies per year! Rapid advances in medical technology has kept the Church's bioethicists very busy in what can be a confusing landscape that increasingly see's human life as simply biological material. The dangerous assisted suicide and euthanasia movement also continues to gain steam. Those pushing forward the assisted suicide agenda have learned from the early mistakes of the pro-abortion movement. They are well funded and organized. Their slickly produced magazines have been left, without permission, in doctor's offices here in our area. Over the past year, they have set up an office here in greater Austin with the intent of lobbying state lawmakers. We only have to look to our neighbors to the northwest and Canada to see how quickly those that claim to be "protecting human dignity" have slid down the slippery slope, now putting the elderly, and even the young, at risk. Unlike abortion, the end of earthly life eventually comes to us all. In a nation that increasingly seeks material comfort and the avoidance of suffering, the marketing of assisted suicide has been attractive and successful in a growing number of states. Could Texas be next? PLEASE CONTINUE TO PRAY FOR LIFE!

We sincerely appreciate everyone for their generosity and prayerful thought in this campaign. We aren't very far away from our goal, so please consider turning in a pledge form this weekend if you haven't already. Even if you cannot give monetarily, we ask that you please go ahead and turn in a pledge card with your name and address so that you will not receive any future correspondence for the campaign. God bless.

Dear friends in Christ,

Praised be Jesus Christ! Thank you to all who attended our parish mission this past week. I hope it was as inspiring for all of you as it was for me. Thank you to those who prepared the meals each day...Moravian Club, KJT, CCE and Christian Mothers. It was all very tasty and enjoyed by everyone.

At the last Pastoral Council meeting, new members were drawn from the nominations that were submitted. The names drawn and who have accepted to serve on the Pastoral Council are Mary Margaret Heurtz, Stephanie Wright and Kelly Godfrey. Thank you also to Cynthia Edgar, Billy Beyer and Marla Tonn, who have completed their three year term on the Council. Your service to the Church is much appreciated.

This coming Thursday, November 1, we celebrate the great feast of All Saints, a holy day of obligation. Vigil Mass will be on Wednesday, October 31, at 6:30 pm and Mass on Thursday, November 1, will be at 7:00 am and 12:00 noon. Then, on Friday, November 2, we celebrate All Souls Day and Mass will be at 12:00 noon and 6:00 pm. We will also have our Cemetery Mass & Blessing of the Graves on Sunday, November 4, at 4:00 pm. If it is raining, we will move the Mass into the church. Let us gather together to remember and pray for our loved ones who have died.

In this weekend's Gospel, Jesus heals Bartimaeus of blindness. Bartimaeus, who was sitting on the side of the road, cries out, "Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me." When Jesus asked him what he wanted, Bartimaeus says that he wants to see. Jesus heals him of his blindness. Jesus wants to heal us of our blindness. So many people in the world today are blind, they are not able to see that they are committing sin, they are blind to their sinfulness, or, maybe they do not want to see that they are sinning because they are happy with the sins they are doing. Do we really want to be healed of the blindness to our sins? Do we want to be healed of our being prejudice against people of a different nationality or race than we are? Do we want to see and be healed of the immoral life we are living? Do we want to see and be healed of our anger or hatred of others? Do we want to see and be healed of laziness? Do we want to see and be healed of selfishness and pride? This list is really unending. Let us pray that we can come to Jesus in faith and courage, as did Bartimaeus, and allow Jesus to heal us of what is unhealthy to our soul and to what is unhealthy to us as human beings created in the image and likeness of God.

We continue to celebrate Czech Heritage Month. Here is a reflection on today's Gospel: A co kdyby Kristus přišel k tobě s touto nabídkou: "Co chceš, abych pro tebe udělal?" Co bys mu odpověděl? Možná bys byl zaskočen... třeba právě proto, že na rozdíl od toho slepce ke Kristu nevoláš: možná neznáš tu úpěnlivou modlitbu žebračka (a Bartimeus byl žebraček, byl zvyklý "prosit", žádat o slitování!), tu hlubokou modlitbu tryskající v nouzi - v situaci, kdy jsi v koncích a víš, že jen Někd jiný tě může zachránit.

Bartimeus skutečně prosil, tloukl a bušil - na dveře zpočátku zavřené a nedobytné, vždyť si ho Ježíš zpočátku nevěšal a, navíc, mnozí ho okřikovali, aby zmlkl. Ale Bartimeus dál hledal a prosil ještě usilovněji... a našel smilování. Znáš Bartimeovu úpěnlivou modlitbu? Nemusí přitom jít o modlitbu za tvé potřeby, může to být i přímluvná modlitba za druhé. Bartimeus přitom volá s jistotou, že právě Ježíš je jeho zachránce - vždyť volá "Synu Davidův" (Mesiáš). A tak i tobě tento "zkušený prosebník" radí, jak volat k Ježíši - s jistotou, že On je tvůj Zachránce a Lékař, tvůj průvodce v temných údolích smrti, tvůj dobrý pastýř, který tě vede po cestách života (a vyvádí tě ze slepých uliček). A Bartimeus po tomto oslovení pokračuje: "Smiluj se nade mnou!" Jinými slovy: "Ukaž mi svou milost, dej mi dar!" Se stejnou důvěrou můžeš i ty k Ježíši volat: "Ukaž mi svou dobrotu, ty jsi nitro milosrdenství, ty znáš soucit - tobě není jedno, že skomírám. Ty jsi mé milosrdenství, mé útočiště."

A Ježíšovo srdce se skutečně "zlomí" před neodbytnou prosbou slepce. Nabídka "co si přeješ?" má prostou odpověď: "Dej, ať vidím!" Na biblických postavách je sympatická jejich bezprostřednost, upřímnost. Podobně jako žalmisté, i Bartimeus vyslovuje právě to, co má na srdci. Jeho odpověď je prostá, ale zároveň plná víry. Jeho srdce je plné důvěry.

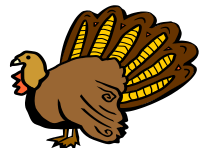

A přece právě na tomto místě můžeme "narazit" - nemodlili jsme se přece tolikrát... a nic se nestalo? Dokonce tak úpěnlivě, tak dlouho, s důvěrou... a stal se opak? Přesně to, co jsme "chtěli odvrátit"? Proč se Bartimeovi Kristus ukázal jako slitovný, a nám jako "neslitovný"? A přece: neplatí snad, že "Ježíš je stále stejný včera i dnes" - tedy stejně milosrdný včera jako dnes? A pokud nás zaráží, že "Ježíš evangelia" uzdravuje, ale dnes už nikoli (anebo mnohem méně), pak si připomeňme, že ani v evangeliu Kristus neuzdravoval všechny - a že někdy dokonce výslovně "nevyhovoval" přáním lidí (např. u Marka je zmínka, že Ježíš utíkal na pusté místo před lidmi, kteří ho hledali - 1,37-38). Jinými slovy - Ježíš je stále milosrdný, ale... někdy jedná tak, jindy onak. Někdy splní doslova naše přání, jindy nevyhoví... aby nám dal něco lepšího. Anebo nedává hned, aby čekáním rostla naše důvěra (sv. Augustýn).

Tak tedy - pokud mám skutečně víru, pak důvěřuji, že mi Ježíš může dát to, po čem toužím - a pokud nedá, tak přesto mám v něho důvěru... a proto se nenechám odradit nevyslyšením prosby... a důvěřuji mu, že on mi dá jiné dobré dary (lepší než to, co hledám). Protože on "neumí" jinak. (From Pastorage.cz)

Have a blessed week and don't forget to pray with your family.

In Christ,
Fr. Stephen Nestrta, farář
