Sixth Sunday of Easter - May 25/26 - In the Gospel this Sunday, Jesus promises to send an Advocate to help the disciples carry on the mission of Jesus. Today we are the ones to whom Jesus sends the Holy Spirit. As we look at the violence, hatred, divisions and fears that exist in our world we might become discouraged. However the resurrection promise of God is that all will be transformed if we are open to God's grace working in us and in our world. What discouragement can you bring to God for his grace to heal?

Attention: Parents of graduating high school seniors: Send your graduate off to college with more than a laptop and credit card. Gift them with a booster shot of their Catholic Faith – a 3-day retreat – June 21-23 at Eagle's Wings in Burnet – sponsored by the Diocese of Austin Office of Youth, Young Adult and Campus Ministry. Get details online at www.tecofctx.wordpress.com.

The Summer Silent Retreat will be held at Cedarbrake Catholic Retreat Center, June 7-12. "Silence is God's first language; everything else is a poor translation. In order to hear that language, we must learn to be still and to rest in God," said Fr. Thomas Keating. This retreat gives you the time and space to eat and pray in silence for 3-5 nights. The retreat will include centering prayer. However, various prayer experiences such as Lectio Divina, Ignatian prayer, Taize prayer, Adoration and daily Mass will be available. The fees include all meals, linens and prayer materials and vary by length of stay, etc. To register, visit www.cedarbrake.org, or call (254) 780-2436.

Dear friends in Christ,

Praised be Jesus Christ! This Monday is Memorial Day. Please pray for the souls of all men and women who have died in the service of our country. May they rest in peace.

Next Sunday is our June Parish Fundraiser. Come and enjoy a wonderful meal and then stay for the music and dancing. Let us come together and celebrate all that God has done for us and for our parish.

Next Sunday, we will celebrate the Ascension of the Lord. Lectors are reminded to check the readings. We will be using the readings from those marked as "May 30 or June 2" on page 95 of the Today's Missal (it is not in your workbooks).

Since Easter, we have been reading a lot from the Acts of the Apostles every week. At the very beginning of the Acts of the Apostles, the Holy Spirit is given to the apostles at Pentecost. Filled with the Spirit, they were sent to witness in Jerusalem and to the ends of the earth. They encountered many problems and difficulties in their mission. At times they were rejected and misunderstood. They faced threats, abuse and violence for the sake of the gospel. This was to be expected. What was not expected was the disagreement and confusion among the followers of Jesus brought about by some of the teachers. They were still human and were not perfect. Today, we heard what Paul and Barnabas chose to do about the problem which arose. They agreed to meet with the apostles and elders in Jerusalem, where they sought the guidance of the Holy Spirit. This meeting became known as the Council of Jerusalem, the first Council of the Church. They agreed that no undue burden was to be placed on the people, and the requirement of circumcision was lifted.

Since this meeting, the Church has held many Councils to settle questions of faith and questions regarding Church organization and Church law. The Holy Spirit has been active in each Council and is very much alive and active in the Church today. We are challenged to imitate the apostles and the leaders of the Church through the centuries in their efforts to build bridges and to be one of mind and heart in all things. We must ask ourselves what division exists in our lives so that we can ask the Holy Spirit to help us resolve them. What problems do we face in the Church that require a greater power to bring them to resolution?

The mission of the Church continues today just as it began in that first community of believers. Much has changed since then, but the love of God is still our cry to which the Holy Spirit gives voice for all to hear. This love, present in the Holy Spirit, is the fruit of God's grace which will help us to overcome division and be of one heart, one mind and one body in Christ, the risen Lord. Let us truly allow Him to work within us, and through us, to bring unity and peace among us.

Something to think about: Dnešní text evangelia patří mezi vzácná místa Písma, která popisují vztah mezi Otcem, Synem, Duchem svatým a námi. Otec a Syn chtějí v našich srdcích najít prostor, kde mohou s námi vést dialog lásky. Duch je někdo, koho posílá Otec, ale Syn se na tomto „příkazu“ podílí. Konají tedy směrem k nám společně. Duch uvádí do plnosti, jako by připravoval místo v našem nitru, aby Otec a Syn mohli vstoupit a přebývat. Duch je oním spojem, komunikátorem, prostředníkem ve vztahu, kterým se smíme propojit s Bohem. Slovo „Přímluve“ znamená, že Duch svatý je v tomto propojení aktivním aktérem, nikoli jen technickým prostředkem! Celá církev se po staletí učí naslouchat, co nám Duch říká a kam nás vede.

Mayo 25-26, Sexto Domingo de Pascua: En el Evangelio de este Domingo, Jesús promete enviarnos un intermediario para ayudar a los discípulos a llevar a cabo la misión de Jesús. Hoy, nosotros somos a quienes Jesús envía el Espíritu Santo. Mientras miramos la violencia, el odio, las divisiones y los temores que existen en nuestro mundo puede que nos desanimemos. De cualquier modo, la promesa de la resurrección de Dios es que todos seamos transformados si estamos abiertos a la gracia de Dios que trabaja en nosotros y en nuestro mundo ¿Qué decepción puede usted traer a la presencia de Dios para recibir su gracia para sanar?

May the blessings of our Lord be with each of you.
