The Most Holy Trinity - June 15/16 - The mystery of the Trinity invites us to understand that God, though one, is relational in being. God is love and love creates relationship. By baptism, we are brought into relationship with God and each other so that we can embody God's dynamic love to the whole world. How are we being called to bring God's healing love to our corner of the world this week?

S radostí a vděčností Bohu Vám oznamuji,

We are in much need of more parishioners to serve as ministers at all weekend Mass times! Please prayerfully consider participating more fully in the Mass as a Lector, Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion, Altar Server, Head Usher, and/or Gift Bearer. All of these ministries serve an integral purpose in our celebration of the Liturgies of the Mass and participation as a minister brings much spiritual joy and fulfillment. For questions, or to volunteer, contact the office or speak with Fr. Stephen.

*To serve as a Minister, you must also be EIM certified, but please don't let this stop you from volunteering, as it is an easy process that only takes 2 hours of your time every three years. For all information about these requirements, please call the office.

Dear friends in Christ,

Today is Father's Day. We honor all fathers, especially those who live their lives in faithfulness to Jesus Christ and to His Church. All fathers are called to be living examples of Jesus to their children. All fathers are called to assist their children in attaining eternal life, which means helping them to live a life of faithfulness to Jesus, correcting and encouraging as needed. May God bless all fathers in their awesome responsibility. Happy Father's Day!

"O most Holy Trinity, Undivided unity, Holy God, mighty God, God immortal be adored!" This is the refrain of one of the hymns in honor of the Holy Trinity, God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. One God, Three Divine Persons. A mystery of our faith. This mystery was revealed to us by Jesus Christ as He said "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit..." as we heard in today's Gospel according to Matthew. Jesus also spoke of Himself as the Son and how He and the Father are one. He also spoke of sending us the Holy Spirit, which we celebrated last Sunday on the feast of Pentecost. Our belief in the Trinity is central to our faith as Christians. It is one of the teachings that all Christians profess, even if they never mention the term in their services, and it is one of the teachings that must be professed by every denomination if they are going to call themselves Christian. We profess our belief in the Trinity every time we make the Sign of the Cross and any time a blessing is given by a priest or deacon. In some cultures parents will bless their children each day by making the Sign of the Cross on their foreheads before their children leave the house to go to school or work or wherever they may be going. Also, we usually end our prayer by saying "Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen." May the most holy Trinity bless us all.

K Úvaze: Duch uvede do Pravdy nejen uvedením do nějakého učení (nebo do litery Písma), ale do hlubin života (tj. Pravdy) mezi Otcem a Synem. A toto "uvádění" není jakousi "turistickou procházkou" (podobně jako turisté obdivují "zdáli" nádhernou jeskyni či neznámou krajinu), ale skutečným připodobněním Kristu: jen jako synové v Synu, jen stálým přetvářením do Kristovy podoby je možné pronikat do hlubin Božího tajemství. Tento Duch uvádí do Pravdy, do prostoru mezi Otcem a Synem. Toto uvádění do vnitřní pravdy se dá vysvětlit jen jako proměňování v Božím prostoru: Duch je pak ten, který očisťuje, osvěcuje, sjednocuje, "zbožšťuje". (Zpracováno dle H. Urs von Balthasar, Lo Spirito della Verità, 20-21, něm. or. Der Geist der Wahrheit)

"Tak jako jsme pozvedáni skrze neviditelný obraz (Krista) k nazírání na původní slavný obraz (Otce), tak je v Synu neodděleně přítomný Duch vzhledu, který v sobě uschopňuje k nazírání Krista těm, kteří se radují při pohledu na pravdu. Duch toto koná ne z vnějšku, ale v sobě samotném uvádí do pravdy... Ve tvém světle vidíme světlo: tzn. v osvětlení Ducha ... A tak on ukazuje v sobě samotném slávu Jednorozeného." (Sv. Bazil Veliký, De Spiritu Sancto 18) (Pastorace.Cz)

Domingo de Trinidad: El misterio de la Trinidad nos invita a entender que Dios, aunque uno, es relacional en ser. Dios es amor y el amor crea la relación. El bautismo nos lleva a la relación con Dios y con los otros para que podamos encarnar la dinámica de Dios de amor hacia el mundo entero ¿Cómo estamos siendo llamados a llevar la sanación de Dios a nuestra esquina del mundo esta semana?

As I mentioned last week, warmer weather has arrived. Usually when summer approaches we are tempted to dress rather lightly or skimpy for Mass. We need to remember that as we come to Mass we come to worship God and to receive His Son in Holy Communion. We should dress in a way that shows respect for God. The general rule that I believe is appropriate is that anyone over 6 years of age should not wear shorts to Mass. Also, girls and ladies should wear blouses or dresses that are appropriate for Mass, nothing strapless or no spaghetti straps. Some say that God doesn't care what you wear to Mass. Well, that may be so. But the question should be "do you love God enough that you care what you wear to Mass and are you willing to do something special for Him?" Do you stand in honor in His presence? Also, if you dress appropriately for Mass you will not be cold in church from the air conditioning. If the air is blowing on you and you are cold, try to move to another part of the church.

Next Sunday, June 23, is Corpus Christi Sunday. We will have our annual Corpus Christi Procession after the 8:30 a.m. Mass on Sunday morning.

May all of you have a most blessed week.
