WE ASK THAT ALL WHO ATTEND MASS WEAR A MASK / FACE COVERING FOR THE HEALTH & SAFETY OF ALL PRESENT!
And we thank you, while our seating is limited, for moving, if possible, to make room for larger families that come in for Mass.

We congratulate and welcome Dustin & Rustin Schwertner (sons of Stephen & Kourtney Schwertner) into the Catholic Church, and the parish family, through the Sacrament of Baptism.

Daylight Savings Time ends this weekend, so don't forget to turn your clocks BACK an hour before you go to bed on Saturday (October 31) night!

National Vocation Awareness Week (November 1-6) – The Church continues to need unselfish, loving and dedicated young men and women to serve as priests, deacons and religious sisters. Please pray this week that those men and women will be inspired by Jesus Christ and answer the call to be living signs of God's saving love at work.

The annual diocesan Catholic Services Appeal will be conducted next weekend (November 7/8). Each year, our bishop asks every one of us to make a commitment to support the work of our diocesan programs and ministries. By sharing the gifts God has granted us, we can work together to care for the Church. Please experience the joy of giving and join us as we work to continue Christ's work of spirituality, charity and education.

Moravian Hall -- To-Go Dinner will be this Sunday, November 1 from 11:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. (or sold out) $10 plate and will consist of Czech sausage, sauerkraut, noodles and green beans and will be available for pickup at the Moravian Hall on Sunday.

Experience the Latin Mass! Come celebrate our Catholic heritage through the traditional Latin Mass on All Souls' Day, Monday, November 2 at 7:30 p.m. The Mass will be celebrated here at Holy Trinity in the Extraordinary Form by Fr. Miguel Flores from St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Killeen, TX. Booklets will be available to follow along in both Latin and English. Following the conclusion of the Mass will be a candlelit procession through the cemetery to pray for the souls in Purgatory. For more information, please contact Josh Jacobs at skjosh.jacobs@gmail.com.

The Confraternity of Christian Mothers presently have, for sale, a few ladies mantillas (veils) in the religious articles cabinet, which have been donated by a parishioner. The colors are white, black and blue and cost $5.00 each. Please contact Louise Straka @ 512-746-5322 if interested.

RCIA: Next class will be held this Tuesday, November 3, at 7:00 p.m. in the RE building. Discussion: The Mass. For information, contact Lucille D'Elia at htcdre@yahoo.com or 737-215-1042.

This Wednesday, November 4, will begin our class time with Mass at 6:30 p.m. If your child(ren) will attend Mass with their class, please have them over at the RE building and with their class by 6:30 at the latest. If you will be sitting with your child(ren) during Mass, please have them over to the RE building right afterwards and be sure they are signed in. Please remind your child(ren) to wear a mask and bring their books and water bottles. If have any questions, please contact our office at 737-215-1042 or htcdre@yahoo.com.

Holy Hour of Reparation every Thursday at 7:30 a.m. (after the 7 a.m. Mass), in the presence of the Lord, inside the church. We follow a beautiful, timeless, relevant Catholic Church approved booklet that will be provided for you each week. This is a good opportunity to pray for the world and for our families. Give the Lord your time and spend an hour in His presence to pray to His Heart.

Pro-Life Eucharistic Adoration every Thursday from 3–9 p.m. in the church. Come and spend some time with the Lord, present in the Blessed Sacrament.

KJZT Family Life Society #15 will meet on Thursday, November 5 at 6:00 pm in the home of Barbara Danek. All members are welcome and encouraged to attend to discuss current year and next year activities.

First Friday & Saturday of the month – November 6 & 7: Friday's Mass is at 6:00 p.m. with our devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and Benediction. Saturday's Mass is at 7:30 a.m. and will conclude with our devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Holy Trinity Painting Restoration Update: The restoration is being done by Brown Mountain Art and Antique Restoration in Dallas. It should take about 12 weeks to complete the work. Cost is $12,100.00. As of today, we have received a total of $3510.00. Thank you for your generosity! If you would like to donate, please put your donation in an envelope and mark on it "Holy Trinity Painting Restoration" and either mail it to us, put it in the collection basket or bring it to the office. Thank you!

MARRIED COUPLES: Worldwide Marriage Encounter is providing a virtual weekend experience on November 6-8, 2020 for couples who want to make their good marriage even better. From the comfort and security of your home, you will be guided by three couples and a priest to help you rediscover your dreams, rekindle your romance and become more aware of God's desire for your marriage. To apply or find out more about the virtual weekend experience in a short video invitation, go to <http://www.austinme.org>.

Invite your family and friends to join you in attending our Parish Mission, beginning next Sunday, November 8 through Thursday, November 12. Please see the flyer on the back of this bulletin for the schedule and more information.

Catholic Charities' 14th annual Creating Hope in Central Texas Event has an exciting new VIRTUAL format this year! Join us November 12 at 7:00 pm to hear stories of our impact and to support Catholic Charities of Central Texas. Stay home, include the family, and create hope in your community by attending our virtual fundraiser event. When each of us gives what we can, we can make a real difference. To register, please go to www.ccctx.org/creatinghope. For questions, contact Kristen Erdem at (512) 651-6132 or kristen-erdem@ccctx.org.

Prayer Before the Election

Lord God, as the election approaches, we seek to better understand the issues and concerns that confront our city/state/country, and how the Gospel compels us to respond as faithful citizens in our community. We ask for eyes that are free from blindness so that we might see each other as brothers and sisters, one and equal in dignity, especially those who are victims of abuse and violence, deceit and poverty. We ask for ears that will hear the cries of children unborn and those abandoned, men and women oppressed because of race or creed, religion or gender. We ask for minds and hearts that are open to hearing the voice of leaders who will bring us closer to your Kingdom. We pray for discernment so that we may choose leaders who hear your word, live your love, and keep in the ways of your truth as they follow in the steps of Jesus and his Apostles and guide us to your Kingdom of justice and peace. We ask this in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ, and through the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen

Dear friends in Christ,

May the peace and love of our Lord be with you! We congratulate those who were chosen at the Pastoral Council Meeting on October 15 to serve a 3 year term on the Council - Brandon Danek, Donald Tschoerner and Matthew Mertink. We also thank those who have completed their 3 year term - Helen Havelka, Mike Hovatter and Sora Garlasco. Thank you to everyone who made nominations. Your participation in this process is very important and appreciated.

This weekend we celebrate the Feast of All Saints'. We remember those who have died and are with God in Heaven. We will also celebrate All Souls' Day on Monday as we pray for all those who have died and are on their way to Heaven. We pray that they may quickly pass through the purifying process in Purgatory and soon join the saints in Heaven. During the month of November, we will be praying for these souls in a special way. We do this because of what we read in Sacred Scripture in passages that pertain to the Church's teaching on Purgatory: Praying for and making an offering for the dead - 2 Maccabees 12:43-46; The need to make up for transgressions - Mt 5:25-26, Lk 12:58-59; nothing profane can enter heaven - Rev. 21:27; cleansing fire - 1 Cor 3:12-15; David, though forgiven, still punished for his sin - 2 Sam 12:13-14. Jesus paid the price for our sins in general, but we still must make up for the individual sins that we do. Let us pray that we can truly be one of those Holy Ones of God.

Join us on Saturday, November 7, at 11:00 am for our annual Mass in the Cemetery, weather permitting. If it is raining we will have the Mass in the church.

Also during this month, we remember those who have served our country as we celebrate Veteran's Day on November 11. We will also celebrate Thanksgiving Day on November 26. We have much for which we are thankful. Maybe during this month, we can count all of our blessings and give thanks to God from them.

Our Parish Mission with Fr. Lou Guardiola, CPM, will begin next Sunday evening, November 8. Take time each evening of the Mission to come and grow in your spiritual life and in your relationship with the Most Holy Trinity.

As we celebrate this day of All Saints', we celebrate a day of giving glory to God by honoring His saints. Today the Church reminds us that God's call to holiness is universal, and all are called to live in His love and to make His love real in the lives of those around them. We live lives of holiness when we live lives of integrity and truth, living a life close to one another while being close to God.

There are many reasons why we should honor the saints:

1. The saints put their trust in Christ and lived heroic lives of faith. The saints enjoy heavenly bliss as a reward for their faith in Jesus.
2. The saints are our role models. They teach us by their lives that Christ's holy life of love, mercy, and unconditional forgiveness can be lived by ordinary people, of all walks of life and at all times.
3. The saints are our intercessors, who intercede for us before Jesus, who is the only intercessor between God and us. They can pray for us as we can pray for one another.
4. The saints are the instruments that God uses to work miracles in the world.

All Saints' Day is not only a day to remember the saints and to thank God for them, but it is also a day to ask for their help. This is a day to glorify Jesus Christ, who by His holy life and death has made the saints and us holy. This feast reminds us that anyone of us can become a saint if we strive to live our life as Jesus asks us. After all, in Matthew 7:21 Jesus says, "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord' will enter the Kingdom of Heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father in Heaven." What is doing the will of the Father, it is living out the beatitudes that we heard in today's Gospel. It is living a life of humility and of obedience to God, keeping the Ten Commandments. This is what those who believe in Jesus do. Let us show our belief in Christ and keeping all He has taught us so that we may join the saints in Heaven.

K ZAMYŠLENÍ: Skutečný smysl a cíl našeho života je blízkost Bohu a radost z něj. Bůh je tak úžasný, krásný a nepostižitelně veliký... To dnes slavíme! Ale tento den také připomíná katolickou tradici, která mluví o bezprostředním soudu každého člověka po smrti, tedy o tom, že každý člověk po smrti přichází k osobnímu soudu a podle toho spočine před Bohem nebo se od něj odvrátí navěky. Svati jsou ti, kdo žijí ve společenství Boha, zakoušejí jeho slávu, plnost, radost z blízkosti Pána života a lásky. Svati nemusejí být jen ti nejmýkonnější z lidí, ale každý, kdo Bohu nabídl svůj život a žije v souladu s Božím pohledem na svět. (Vira.cz)

Nov. 1 – 31ro. Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario: Hoy celebramos la Solemnidad de Todos Los Santos. Los santos nos dan un modelo de santidad. Dios permite a los santos llevarle a Él nuestras oraciones y los santos nos traen de regreso, la gracia de Dios. Todos los santos de Dios ¡Rueguen por nosotros!

Please be praying this week in a special way on Tuesday for the elections. The church is open for you to come and spend some time in prayer. May God's Will be done! Praised be Jesus Christ! Now and forever!

May all of you have a blessed month of November.

In Christ,
Fr. Stephen Nestrta, farář

Mission Prayer

Almighty God, Father of Mercies, grant that the upcoming Parish Mission will be a means for souls to draw closer to You. May the Holy Spirit's gift of wisdom be instilled in the minds of the faithful, may hearts be inflamed with greater charity, and may the prodigal children of God be brought into the merciful arms of the Savior. Amen.

Church is located at 8626 FM 1105, Jarrell, 76537. You may contact the parish office for more information at 512-863-3020.
