Mass Intentions: In this last year, we have had a huge increase in the number of people requesting Masses for deceased loved ones, for healing, and other important needs. We try to schedule these as requested. However, the Church has that we not schedule too many for each Mass. The usual rule, by the Church, is one intention per Mass, but, the bishop may allow more if needed. With that in mind, we try to follow the Church's guidelines but due to the increase request, we have been allowing up to three at one Mass. So, please be understanding if we ask you to choose another day if the day you want already has multiple intentions. The usual offering is $5 per person requested, but more or less may be given. Also, all donations for Mass Intentions are put into our Social Ministry Fund to help those in need. Thank you.

The New Year has begun and there are still many boxes of the 2021 Collection Envelopes that are yet to be picked up. If you do not have a box in there and want one, please put your name on the list provided then check back the next weekend for your box. If you are now making your donations online and no longer need a box of envelopes, please let the office know.

If you would like a 2020 Donation Report for tax, or other, purposes, please let the office know. If you received one this past year, you will automatically receive one again. Reports will be mailed out by January 31.

Dear friends in Christ,

This weekend, we celebrate Called by Name Sunday which is part of the Diocese of Austin Year of the Domestic Church. Please take time to think of people from our parish who you think have the gifts needed to be a priest or a religious brother or sister. You may want to encourage them personally to think about the priesthood or religious life. Let them know that you see something within them, and that God may be calling them to one of these vocations. Please join us for a Holy Hour of Prayer for vocations this Sunday, January 17, at 3:00 pm. Let us pray for men and women to respond to God's calling them to a religious vocation.

In today's Gospel, we hear John calling Jesus "the Lamb of God." Jesus is the Lamb that would be sacrificed for the sins of all people, taking the place of the sacrificial lambs that were offered in the Temple. We make this same declaration at every Mass as we say, "Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world" and as the priest says, "This is the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world" as he holds the Host and shows it to the people before receiving Holy Communion. The Host is that same Lamb of God, Jesus Himself, who continues to take away our sins. Let us recognize Him as we receive Him.

Also, in today's Gospel we hear the calling of Andrew and Simon to be two of the apostles of Jesus and in the first reading we hear the calling of Samuel by God for his mission in life. We are also called, each of us by name, to be of service to God. Some are called to marriage, some to the priesthood, some to religious life and others are called to remain single and to serve God in a special way in their life. Do we see our vocation as a calling? Do we see our vocation as the way we have been called to be of service to God? Every vocation is a holy calling, so we must try to keep ourselves holy by living a life of purity in each of our vocations and by always listening to God and being in communication with Him. Let us all take time to reflect upon the way we have been called as individuals for our mission in life.

K ZAMYŠLENÍ: Můžeme dnes obdivovat pokoru Křtitele, který „své“ učedníky nasměroval na Krista. Ale především sledujeme samotného Ježíše, který povolává učedníky. Pro každého je povolání specifické. Nelze však nevidět, že poznání Krista rozběhlo řetězec událostí a vyvolalo další zájem. Slovo hlásat mnohým nahání obavy, že to neumí, nezvládnou. Ondřej však nevěděl o Ježíši skoro nic a přeci bylo jeho svědectví důležité. Je rozdíl mezi odbornou teologickou přednáškou a osobním svědectvím. Každý z nás může mluvit o tom, co on sám s Bohem zažil, a nabídnout ostatním, aby se sami přesvědčili, kdo Ježíš je. (Vira.cz)

Segundo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario: En el Evangelio de hoy, Juan el Bautista señala a Jesús como el "Cordero de Dios", quien vivió y aceptó incluso la muerte para salvarnos de la muerte. A pesar de que vivimos tiempos de incertidumbre, estamos llamados a vivir en unión con el Único que pagó por nosotros con su propia muerte por amor a nosotros. Es cierto que enfrentaremos lo que ya hemos enfrentado –sufrimiento, miedo y muerte- pero al igual que a él, se nos promete compartir de su resurrección y gloria ¿Cómo podemos compartir nuestra esperanza esta semana? ¿Cómo podemos eliminar el dolor y la ansiedad de nuestras vidas y de las vidas de aquellos alrededor de nosotros por nuestra fe en Jesús?

Important Notice: You will find in your box of envelopes a new envelope for our Building Fund. This replaces the monthly collection for Faith Formation. We do not have an actual start date for construction yet. I was hoping to have a set figure for all of you for the cost of our upcoming building project, but the architect and the contractor are still working on the final cost. There was a significant difference between the estimated cost the architect gave us and the one the contractor submitted. However, knowing that we will be moving forward on this project I would ask that you prayerfully consider what you can contribute to this important monthly collection. I will start it off by donating my $600.00 stimulus check from the government to the Building Fund, and I will also pledge a monthly donation of $200.00. Whatever amount you are able to pledge each month will be greatly appreciated. Please pray about it before you prepare your envelope for next week. Thank you.

May all of you have a most blessed week.

Fr. Stephen Nestrta, farář

Prayer for the Diocese of Austin Year of the Domestic Church

O God, creator of all, you ordered the earth to bring forth life and crowned its goodness by creating the human family. In history's moment when all was ready, you sent your Son to dwell in time, "practicing the virtues of family life and in the bonds of charity." Teach us the sanctity of human love; show us the value of the Domestic Church; and help us to live in peace with all people, that we may share in your life forever. With the intercession of St. Joseph, Patron of the Universal Church, we ask this through Christ the Lord. Amen.

"Called by Name" Sunday: We often ask our young women and men what they would like to be when they grow up. If a religious sister or priest is mentioned, are we ready to support them? If there is someone you know in our parish who should be encouraged to consider these vocations, we want to know. Envelopes on the bulletin tables are available to submit their names. The Diocese of Austin Vocations Office will contact them to provide resources and information as they consider a vocation. "Come and follow me," said Jesus to Simon Peter and Andrew. Ultimately, each person is called by name by God. We might need to help them see the gifts and talents they have.

Prayer to St. Joseph after the Rosary

This prayer to Saint Joseph—spouse of the Virgin Mary, foster father of Jesus, and patron saint of the universal Church—was composed by Pope Leo XIII in his 1889 encyclical, Quamquam pluries. He asked that it be added to the end of the Rosary, especially during the month of October, which is dedicated to the Rosary. It may be said after the customary Salve Regina and concluding prayer and may also be used to conclude other Marian devotions.

During the Year of Saint Joseph, the prayer is ordinarily enriched with a partial indulgence (Handbook of Indulgences, conc. 19). During the Year of Saint Joseph, however—which lasts from December 8, 2020 to December 8, 2021—the use of this prayer has been included among those enriched with a plenary indulgence (see Decree of the Apostolic Penitentiary issued Dec. 8, 2020, section E). It may be said on any day of the Year of Saint Joseph, but especially on his various feast days or other devotional days dedicated to St. Joseph:

- December 27, 2020, the Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph
- March 19, 2021, the Solemnity of Saint Joseph, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary
- May 1, 2021, the Optional Memorial of Saint Joseph the Worker
the nineteenth day of each month
- Every Wednesday, the traditional day of the week for devotions to Saint Joseph
- "St. Joseph Sunday" and suitable days of other liturgical rites in the Eastern Catholic Churches

Prayer to Saint Joseph

To you, O blessed Joseph,
do we come in our tribulation,
and having implored the help of your most holy Spouse, we confidently invoke your patronage also.

Through that charity which bound you to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God and through the paternal love with which you embraced the Child Jesus, we humbly beg you graciously to regard the inheritance which Jesus Christ has purchased by his Blood, and with your power and strength to aid us in our necessities.

O most watchful guardian of the Holy Family, defend the chosen children of Jesus Christ;
O most loving father, ward off from us
every contagion of error and corrupting influence;
O our most mighty protector, be kind to us and from heaven assist us in our struggle with the power of darkness.

As once you rescued the Child Jesus from deadly peril, so now protect God's Holy Church
from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity;
