Dear friends in Christ,

Praised be Jesus Christ! Today at the 10:30 am Sunday Mass we welcome our graduates. We pray God's blessings up them as they will soon graduate and begin a new chapter in their life. May they always be open to the Holy Spirit's guidance and truly seek the Spirit's direction in their life. May their future be filled with love, joy, peace and friendship and may they always be assured of God's loving presence with them in whatever they believe God is calling them to in life.

"Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of Thy faithful and enkindle in them the fire of Thy love." This weekend we celebrate the great feast of Pentecost. We remember the day that the Apostles, our Blessed Mother, Mary, and some other disciples were in the upper room behind locked doors praying, waiting, and wondering what they should do. The Holy Spirit came upon them as "tongues of fire" on their heads. This is what the bishop's hat, the mitre, represents. After receiving the Holy Spirit they were all able to speak in different tongues (languages). Notice that people could understand what they were saying. They did not speak some kind of babbling that no one could understand. They also were filled with courage to go into the public and proclaim the message of Jesus. We have received that same Holy Spirit. Let us pray that we have the same courage and faith of the Apostles so that we will proclaim the truths of Jesus Christ and His Church without fear. Pentecost is also seen as the birthday of the Church. For two thousand years the Holy Spirit has continued to lead the Church in the fullness of Truth. That is why the Church has a vital role of being the voice of God to the world when it comes to be His authority in regards to Faith and Morals. May we always listen attentively to what the Church is saying and try to understand its teachings before we make comments about them. Jesus' promise is fulfilled in the Catholic Church and He is with it always until the end of time which will take place when He returns in all His glory.

Many people will very soon begin their summer vacations. Always remember to take a nice set of clothes along with you so that you will be properly dressed for Mass wherever you go. Please do not attend Mass in shorts if you are more than 6 years of age. Check ahead of time to locate the Catholic Church and find out the Mass times so that you will be on time for Mass. It is important that we do not neglect our worship of God and that we keep His Commandment to keep Holy the Sabbath Day.

As we continue to honor our Blessed Mother, Mary, during this month of May, don't forget to pray the rosary daily reflecting upon the mysteries for each day. In doing so we grow closer to her Son, Jesus, and we grow stronger in our faith.

K úvaze: Zdá se, že Duch svatý není stále brán tak, jak ho Nový zákon prezentuje. Pro některé je to jakási zvláštnější podpora normálního křesťanského snažení, podpora, bez níž bychom se nakonec obešli, ale kterou je vhodné občas připomenout, pro jiné je to strůjce různých mimořádností. Nový zákon ukazuje vždy těsnou souvislost mezi vzkříšeným Pánem a Duchem. V podstatě tam, kde se člověk setká se Vzkříšeným, tam následuje působení Ducha, obdarování Duchem. Je tomu tak poté, co člověk uvěří, je tomu tak po křtu, ale, což není tak běžné, mělo by tomu tak být třeba i po setkání se Vzkříšeným v eucharistii.

Duch svatý není nějakým dárkem "na přilepšenou", ale je nutným základem skutečné víry a také dojem účinnosti a síly jakéhokoliv hlásání Krista v církvi, ať už slovem, nebo činem. Je třeba ovšem nejen s tím počítat, ale přímo ho pustit k dílu. Kde jsem totiž zcela uveleben já sám, tak nemůže být dost dobře On. (Pastorace.cz)

Domingo de Pentecostés: La llama de la pascua abre paso hoy al fuego Pentecostal mientras celebramos el envío del Espíritu que nos hace la nueva creación de Dios. No existe un regreso a la vida usual, a través de la acción del Espíritu Santo, estamos ahora, como lo hizo Jesús, proclamando de palabra y de hecho el amor salvífico de Dios y la llegada del reino de Dios. Hoy no marca el final de la temporada, sino una celebración de la misión para la cual fuimos bautizados ¡Que continúen sonando nuestros aleluyas mientras continuamos esta gran misión que nos ha dado Dios!

May the Spirit of the Lord be with you all.

Prayer for the Diocese of Austin Year of the Domestic Church

O God, creator of all, you ordered the earth to bring forth life and crowned its goodness by creating the human family. In history's moment when all was ready, you sent your Son to dwell in time, "practicing the virtues of family life and in the bonds of charity." Teach us the sanctity of human love; show us the value of the Domestic Church; and help us to live in peace with all people, that we may share in your life forever. With the intercession of St. Joseph, Patron of the Universal Church, we ask this through Christ the Lord. Amen.

For the month of May, we continue our reflections for the Year of the Domestic Church by celebrating the gift of parenthood. We thank the Lord for the countless sacrifices that parents make, from sleepless nights to working long hours to provide for their families. Their roles are often thankless, but vital to our domestic churches. In their openness to new life, parents are cooperators with the Lord in creation and entrusted by God with the lives of their children. Christ himself taught us to approach God as a parent. Throughout the Gospels, Jesus gives us the term "Abba," meaning father. The use of this word indicates a level of intimacy and conjures-up ideas of the tenderness between a parent and child. The term also indicates a level of authority. The faithful are called to obedience in their relationship with God, as a child is called to obedience in relationship with his or her parent. By looking to Christ and his relationship with God the Father, we see the beauty of reciprocity in relationships between parents and children. This month as we celebrate the gift of parents, let us celebrate the gift of the people who brought us into this world, as well as the gift of a loving father in heaven.
