The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults or "RCIA" is a process for welcoming new members into the Roman Catholic Church. It is a journey that leads to a transformation of mind and spirit. The RCIA is mainly for non-Catholics who want to become Catholic, but adult Catholics who have not received all of the Sacraments (Communion, Confession, Confirmation) may also come into full communion with the Church through the RCIA process. Our RCIA team is always ready to help you begin your journey. If you have any questions or would like any other information, please contact our Faith Formation Office at 737-215-1042 or htcdre@yahoo.com.

Dear friends in Christ,

Peace be with you! Thank you to everyone who worked to make our June fundraiser a success. I know that some of you worked several days preparing the food, working the day of the fundraiser and then cleaning everything up again. May God reward all of you for your efforts and hard work.

This weekend we welcome four seminarians from the Diocese of Austin: Chris Haberberger, Cameron Kologinczak, Brian McNaughton and William Stivers. They will be here for about 10 days. See their note in today's bulletin for what they have planned for us while they are here.

Many people are beginning their summer vacations. Always remember to take a nice set of clothes along with you so that you will be properly dressed for Mass wherever you go. Please do not attend Mass in shorts if you are more than 6 years of age. Check ahead of time to locate the Catholic Church and find out the Mass times so that you will be on time for Mass. You can find the Mass times for almost every parish by going to www.masstimes.org or by using their App on your smartphone. It is important that we do not neglect our worship of God and that we keep His Commandment to keep Holy the Sabbath Day.

In today's Gospel Jesus compares the Kingdom of God to the sowing of seeds and to the mustard seed. Jesus speaks of how the Kingdom of God grows and how God's Kingdom will grow in this world, especially through His Church. Jesus sowed the seed with His apostles and from that tiny beginning the Catholic Church has grown to more than 1.2 billion members. The Church continues to grow each year. We all need to pray that we will give faithful witness to Jesus so that others may see God's Kingdom within us and choose to follow Jesus in the Church that He established.

K úvaze: V evangeliu, které nám dnešního dne církev nabízí, jsme slyšeli: „Ať spí či bdí, v noci i ve dne, semeno vzchází a roste, on ani neví jak“ (Mk 4, 27). A o něco dále také: „Je jako hořčičné zrno: Když je zaseto do země, je menší, než všelka semena na zemi“ (Mk 4, 31).

Velmi se mi zalíbil proces, kdy něco malého, nepatrného, bezvýznamného samo o sobě, bez vnějšího přispění, s vlastní vnitřní silou vyroste do něčeho velikého a pro druhé přínosného.

Mnohokrát se mi potvrdilo, že jednoduché svědectví vlastního života, nebo s laskavostí a pochopením vyslovený názor, anebo nezištně podaná ruka se staly důvodem k zájmu a později obrácení nějakého životní smysl a naději hledajícího člověka. Jsem rád, že si připomínáme právě toto Ježíšovo učení.

Takže rozséváme dobré semeno Božího slova. Nestrachujme se, že by Bůh něco nechal padnout nazmar. A budme trpěliví v doprovázení těch, ve kterých semeno již vyrůstá. Opatrujeme ho bedlivě. (Pastorace.cz)

XI Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario: Este domingo la lectura de la Escritura nos ofrece la imagen del crecimiento y desarrollo. Mucha gente puede ser una influencia importante en nuestro crecimiento y desarrollo personal, particularmente en nuestra fe ¿Quién cooperaba con Dios sembrando semillas de fe en su vida? ¿Cómo está usted nutriéndolas? ¿Cuáles son los frutos de esa fe? Cuando estamos profundamente enraizados en la vida de Dios, nuestro Padre, entonces sabemos que daremos frutos de vida, caridad, compasión, misericordia y perdón. El amor de Dios crecerá en nosotros para ayudarnos a alcanzar a los que no tienen amor, a los olvidados, los pobres y a aquellos a quienes Dios muestra un cuidado especial — los pobres y vulnerables.

May all of you have a most blessed week.

Prayer for the Diocese of Austin Year of the Domestic Church

O God, creator of all, you ordered the earth to bring forth life and crowned its goodness by creating the human family. In history's moment when all was ready, you sent your Son to dwell in time, "practicing the virtues of family life and in the bonds of charity." Teach us the sanctity of human love; show us the value of the Domestic Church; and help us to live in peace with all people, that we may share in your life forever. With the intercession of St. Joseph, Patron of the Universal Church, we ask this through Christ the Lord. Amen.

Young people are a gift from God. The Gospel of Matthew demonstrates the special place that young people have with God. It says: "Jesus said, 'Let the children come to me, and do not prevent them; for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these (Mat. 19:13-15).'" Children contribute to the good of the family. They bring love and vitality to their families, as well as grow in and share faith with their families. They also learn Christian discipleship from their parents and contribute to helping their parents grow in holiness through mutual affection, love and forgiveness (cf. CCC 2225-2229). As children grow into youth and young adulthood, they grow in faith according to their various stages in life, and are called to share in Christ's mission at each stage. In his Apostolic Exhortation Christus Vivit, Pope Francis states: "Filled with the love of Christ, young people are called to be witnesses of the Gospel wherever they find themselves, by the way they live (CV 175)." We can look to the lives of young people as examples of what it means to rely on our parents for our basic needs. As children of God, we rely on the love and mercy of our heavenly father as we grow in holiness throughout our lives. In what ways is God a father to you?

5 Ways to Nurture Your Child's Faith

Gifts to Encourage a Strong Spiritual Life

Parents are responsible for the material well-being of their children. Yet we know our children are spiritual beings as well. Here are five gifts you can give to nurture the spiritual life of your child.

1. Explain to your child why you gave him or her the name you did.

In the Bible, names carry a lot of meaning. Jesus changed Simon's name to Peter (Greek for "rock"), which indicated Peter's vocation as the leader of Christian community. By telling your child how you chose his or her name, you can highlight the spiritual hopes you have for your child and emphasize his or her connection to the larger community.

2. Tell stories about your ancestors.

Explain, for example, how their grandparents or great-great grandparents came to this country if they are of immigrant heritage. Such stories—of the strength, perseverance, and faith of their forebears—will help them know that they are part of a larger, grander story than just their own.

3. Share with your child who your favorite saint is and why.

Describe how you receive inspiration from the example or teaching of this saint (or saintly person, whether canonized or not). Explain to your child the reason you are devoted to this saint and talk about other people whom you admire.

4. Offer a story about how your faith helped you in a difficult time in your life.

Think back to a time when you made an important decision and, if you are comfortable, share how your faith shaped the decision. Set aside time to also talk about how your faith helps you on a daily basis.

5. Give your child your time and attention; listen to their hopes and dreams.

The care and concern you express for your child provides a foundation upon which your child can accept God's love and the love of others. Every day you help to shape the attitude your child brings to prayer and worship. The loving attention you share with your child prepares him or her to encounter Jesus in the heart, in the Eucharist, and in other people.
