Tornado in Czech Republic - on June 24th, an EF3 to EF4 tornado, with wind speeds of 140-180 mph, destroyed thousands of structures, tearing through seven towns and villages in the southeast part of the country, making this the most severe tornado on record in the area.

The people of the Czech Republic have helped Czech communities in Texas in times of crisis, esp. in West and LaGrange. And now the Czech people need our help!

Individuals and organizations wishing to offer assistance may make their tax-deductible donations to: Czech Moravian Benevolence Fund c/o The SPJST Foundation; P.O. Box 100; Temple, Texas, 76503. The Foundation is an independent 501(c)3 non-profit organization that provides assistance to projects of redeeming value, especially those which embrace Czech heritage and culture.

Our Bible Study continues this Tuesday at 12:00 pm as we continue our journey with Dr. Sri and a "Biblical Walk Through the Mass".

Our Religious Education Program is growing and will certainly be larger than last year. To help us bring our children closer to Jesus and to learn about our wonderful Catholic faith we need volunteers to teach and to help. To find out how you can help use your gifts and talents contact our Faith Formation office at 737-215-1042 or htcdre@yahoo.com.

The "Amazon Smile Program" donates 0.5% of the price of eligible items purchased on Amazon to a charity of your choice – and "Holy Trinity Catholic Church – Corn Hill Texas" is one of those charities available!! Go to <http://smile.amazon.com> - sign into your Amazon account and choose our parish (as worded above) as your organization of choice. We appreciate your support!

Registration for CCE for 2021-2022 is now open and classes begin on Wednesday, September 1st. Students in grades K-12 should be enrolled in our parish CCE Program. Registration Forms are available online or at the back of the church. They can be returned via mail or by placing them in the collection basket marked "CCE". All new students to our program must be registered in person by scheduling an appointment with our DRE at htcdre@yahoo.com or 737-215-1042.

Franciscan Father Albert Haase will be present "The Listening to the Voice of God" July 29 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. at St. Helen Parish in Georgetown. Participants are invited to grow in a deeper relationship with God by learning how the Lord speaks to us in daily life. The day is based on Father Haase's book titled, "Saying Yes: Discovering and Responding to God's Will in Your Life." The cost is $40 and includes lunch. Register through Cedarbrake by calling (254) 780-2436 or at www.cedarbrake.org.

Banns of Marriage are announced for the first time for Sarah Bruce and Joseph Hopkins, who will celebrate the Sacrament of Matrimony here on July 17.

PARISH BAZAAR

Our annual bazaar is Sept. 19. Information about what is needed for this fun day of activities and good food, as well as raffle tickets, is being given to our registered parishioners. After Mass, please drop by the tables outside on the south and west sides of the church to receive your envelope. We will have a Bazaar Planning Meeting next Sunday, July 11, in the RE Bldg, immediately after the 8:30 a.m. Mass. All Bazaar Chairpersons and Function Leaders, as well as anyone else interested in helping with or learning more about the Bazaar, are encouraged to attend. We are in need of a function leader to oversee the sale of sodas and water. If you are interested, please contact Charles Marquis or Helen Havelka.

Prayer to Saint Joseph

To you, O blessed Joseph, do we come in our tribulation, and having implored the help of your most holy Spouse, we confidently invoke your patronage also. Through that charity which bound you to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God and through the paternal love with which you embraced the Child Jesus, we humbly beg you graciously to regard the inheritance which Jesus Christ has purchased by his Blood, and with your power and strength to aid us in our necessities. O most watchful guardian of the Holy Family, defend the chosen children of Jesus Christ; O most loving father, ward off from us every contagion of error and corrupting influence; O our most mighty protector, be kind to us and from heaven assist us in our struggle with the power of darkness. As once you rescued the Child Jesus from deadly peril, so now protect God's Holy Church from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity; shield, too, each one of us by your constant protection, so that, supported by your example and your aid, we may be able to live piously, to die in holiness, and to obtain eternal happiness in heaven. Amen.

Dear friends in Christ,

Praised be Jesus Christ! This weekend we celebrate our nation's independence. Please pray for our country that we may never be independent of God. A nation that lives according to the laws and commandments of God is a nation that lives in freedom because it is only through His laws and commandments that true freedom can be experienced. May we not be afraid to profess our faith and live in freedom as sons and daughters of our heavenly Father. Thank you to all those men and women who have helped to make this freedom possible here in the great USA.

We welcome all new parishioners to Holy Trinity Parish. We are glad you are here to join us in this Eucharistic Celebration. We hope you make Holy Trinity your parish home. I would like to remind everyone to remember to always dress appropriately for Mass. Please do not attend Mass in shorts if you are more than 6 years of age. Let us always give our best to God as we come to worship Him.

In today's Gospel Jesus is not being accepted by those who seem to know Him the best, the people in His own hometown. Jesus says, "A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house." Isn't this true today! In many churches of today, whether it be Protestant or Catholic, the teachings of Jesus are not being accepted and they teach something that is a direct contradiction to the teachings of Jesus. There are many wolves in sheep's clothing in the world today. It is important that we recognize them for who they are... Satan's advocates. We must teach and live our Catholic faith in a way that will help others to once again be faithful to Jesus Christ and to His Church. In today's Gospel it reads, "He was amazed at their lack of faith." What would Jesus say about us today? Our Lord loves each and every one of us. All He asks in return is that we love Him. We show Jesus this love in loving one another and by loving His heavenly Father. Jesus says that those who keep the Commandments are the ones that love. Faithfulness is a sign of our love for God. So, do we really love God? Living in His love is the pinnacle of our life on this earth. Allow yourselves to experience God's love for you.

Myšlenky: Připomeňme si nejdříve evangelium minulé neděle. Tam se mluvilo o víře - o víře nemocné ženy a o víře otce, jehož dcera umírala. V obou případech Ježíš na tuto víru odpověděl činem, nemocní byli uzdraveni, těm, kteří v něho doufali, bylo pomoheno. Dnešní evangelium ukazuje opak, totiž nevíru. Nazaretští se nejdřív podívají Ježíšově moudrosti, ale vzápětí si uvědomí, že Ježíš pro ně není neznámou postavou. Je jedním z nich, znají jeho příbuzné a tak nejenže od něj nečekají nic mimořádného, ale dělá jim možná i potíže připustit, že ten, který je jedním z nich, by je mohl v něčem převyšovat. Je to lidsky obyčejné a pochopitelné. Ale zároveň je hned vidět důsledek - Ježíš nemohl mezi nimi celkem nic vykonat. Chyběla víra - nechyběla Ježíšova moc!

Ježíš nám nabízí vyvedení z kruhu vlastních přání a vlastních hříchů do okruhu Boží lásky, Božího království, prostě nabízí nám záchranu. Jeho nabídka je trvalá a mocná. Jde jen o to, zda člověk Ježíši uvěří, nebo jestli zůstane u toho, že ho bude posuzovat. (Pastorace.cz)

Décimo Cuarto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario: El Evangelio de hoy registra que a Jesús no le creían ni le daban la bienvenida y esta falta de fe era tan angustiada que no pudo hacer milagros ahí, excepto por unas cuantas sanaciones. Puede que nos preguntemos sobre el escepticismo y la duda de aquellos contemporáneos de Jesús, pero esa actitud puede que nos aleja de reconocer que podemos ser de mente cerrada y escépticos. Estamos invitados este domingo a examinar humildemente nuestras propias actitudes hacia los pobres, los inmigrantes y los no-natos; hacia la enseñanza de la Iglesia sobre la justicia económica, el medio ambiente y la familia ¿Se han endurecido nuestros corazones a la voz y la presencia de Dios como los de esos hombres del pasado?

May all of you have a most blessed week.

O God, creator of all, you ordered the earth to bring forth life and crowned its goodness by creating the human family. In history's moment when all was ready, you sent your Son to dwell in time, "practicing the virtues of family life and in the bonds of charity." Teach us the sanctity of human love; show us the value of the Domestic Church; and help us to live in peace with all people, that we may share in your life forever. With the intercession of St. Joseph, Patron of the Universal Church, we ask this through Christ the Lord. Amen.

We are God's children. This may be something that you have heard since you were a child, but how often do you think about it and consider the implications of what it means that you are a child of God? Jesus taught us to call God "father." Throughout his life, he desired that we would know God as the merciful and loving father that he is. Shortly before his death, Jesus prayed: "O righteous Father, the world has not known you, but I have known you; and these know that you have sent me. I made known to them your name, and I will make it known, that the love with which you have loved me may be in them, and I in them (John 17:25-26)." Through our baptism, we are made adopted children of God. As children of God, we share in the sufferings of Christ. We are also co-heirs of God's kingdom with Christ, and share in his life through his body, the Church. When you pray, do you approach God as your father? What can we learn from Christ's life and witness about what it means that God is our father? If we are part of Christ's body with God's love within us, how can you demonstrate his love to others?

How to Show Your Children What God Is Like

Use a variety of images to point to God. The Bible describes God in many ways: a voice coming from the clouds, one who sits on a mighty throne, a still, small voice in the wind, a mother hen gathering her chicks, a jealous husband, a caring shepherd. None of these images totally captures God, who is beyond nationality, beyond male and female, beyond any idea or image we can conjure up. All are clues, and the broader and more varied the repertoire of images for God we stock our children's heads with, the more they'll know about God.

Stop a minute to think about what traits you especially want to convey to your children, and think about what qualities you might be expressing instead. God is surely more than we can ever portray, and our children will go on (we hope) to have their own rich relationship with God, who is beyond all understanding. But never forget that you're the first and foremost person to give them clues to just who this awesome God is.

Familiarize your children with Bible stories. There are excellent renditions of the classic stories that have not been sanitized and "tamed." The stories are rough and wild. That tells us something about God too.

Use religious art. What images do you have on your walls? Do they present an engaging and challenging vision of God and God's works? To find images that appeal to you and convey the wonder and mystery of God, you may need to expand your search. Don't be locked into standard images; rather, embrace images of God and other religious art that emerge from other cultures.
