2nd Collection for Haiti and the Diocese of Houma-Thibodaux, Louisiana- On August 14th a 7.2 magnitude earthquake struck Haiti killing nearly 1300 people, leaving thousands without shelter and many communities in need of resources. Haiti is still recovering from the disastrous earthquake a decade ago and many people continue face food insecurity and severe drought. Haiti also recently experienced the recent tropical storm Grace adding to the humanitarian disaster. Closer to home, our brothers and sisters in South Louisiana have endured Hurricane Ida, significantly damaging every parish and school community in the Diocese of Houma-Thibodaux. It will take months if not years for these communities to rebuild. This weekend Bishop Vásquez asks that a 2nd collection be taken up for these relief efforts. He has decided that 50% of this collection will go to helping the people of South Louisiana, specifically the Diocese of Houma-Thibodaux, and 50% will be sent to the US Bishops' Emergency Disaster Fund, to benefit the people of Haiti. May God bless you for your generosity.

Elite Medical Imaging (EMI) will be here on Saturday, October 2, in the RE Bldg, to provide our annual Preventive Ultrasound Health Screening. Ultrasound screenings are painless, non-invasive and contain no radiation. Eight preventive screenings will be offered: carotid artery, abdominal aorta, thyroid, liver, spleen, gallbladder and both kidneys. These screenings are not typically done at doctor's visits or at annual checkups, nor will insurance companies pay for them, unless you are symptomatic. Screenings will be offered to you for $49 each or the full package, (all 8 areas) for just $150.00! Flex spending accounts may be used, and all other forms of payment are accepted the day of the screening. Their radiologist recommends these screenings be considered on an annual basis as a preventive measure. Oftentimes, results can change from one year to the next based on age, stress factors and lifestyle. Appointments are required and will be offered on a first come first serve basis. An EMI representative will also be here the weekend of September 25/26, offering pre-registration and to answer any questions. However, if you prefer scheduling your appointment beforehand, please email Stacey.aguirre@emi.us.com for an appointment request or call 713-568-8831.

Dear friends in Christ,

Peace be with you! Our Parish Bazaar is next Sunday. If you have not signed up to work, please do so by calling the chairperson of the area in which you would like to work. Everyone is needed to help lighten the load so that all will be a success.

We are still looking for new chairpersons for next year's Bazaar. If you are interested in serving as chair/vice chair for next year's fundraisers, please contact the parish office or Helen Havelka or Charles Marquis.

In today's readings St. James tells us that faith without works is dead. If we say we have faith, then it must be seen by the works that we do, otherwise our faith is of no use and will not assist us in entering the Kingdom of Heaven. There is no such thing as a "faith alone" salvation. Sacred Scripture makes this very clear. Faith and works must go together if we are to truly be followers of Jesus. In the Gospel today St. Peter makes a profession of faith as he tells Jesus, "You are the Christ." Even as he makes this bold profession of faith his human nature tries to interfere with his faith as he does not want to see Jesus suffer and die. The same is true in today's day and time for us as we struggle with our human nature and many times think only as human beings do and not as God. May our faith sustain us in these struggles against what is true and what is according to the ways of God.

K úvaze: Náš problém často je, že jsme vůči Kristu opatrní. Vystihuje to i příběh, kde jsou tři postavy. Ital je slepý, Polák má zlomenou nohu a Čech je ochrnutý na vozíku. Najednou se před nimi objeví Ježíš a ptá se, co pro ně může udělat. Ital řekne: „Chci znovu vidět.“ Ježíš mu sáhne na oči a on opět vidí. Pak se dotkne Polákovy zlomené nohy a ta sroste. Čech znervózní a povídá: „Ještě než začneš něco dělat, tak si uvědom, že беру plný invalidní důchod. Tak na mne raději nesahej.“

Problém, kam s Ježíšem, nebudeme mít, pokud se přestaneme obávat toho, co s námi chce udělat, ale budeme se ho ptát, co máme udělat my. (Pastorace.cz)

24to Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario: La familia de fe nunca puede cerrar los ojos a las desigualdades socioeconómicas de aquellos que sufren alrededor de nosotros. Si pertenecemos a Cristo, debemos siempre expresar una preocupación especial por los marginados. Expresar preocupación pone nuestra fe en práctica tal como la epístola de Santiago nos recuerda, "La Fe sin trabajo está muerta".

May God's blessings be upon you all.

In Christ, Fr. Stephen Nesrsta, farář

Prayer for the Diocese of Austin Year of the Domestic Church

O God, creator of all, you ordered the earth to bring forth life and crowned its goodness by creating the human family. In history's moment when all was ready, you sent your Son to dwell in time, "practicing the virtues of family life and in the bonds of charity." Teach us the sanctity of human love; show us the value of the Domestic Church; and help us to live in peace with all people, that we may share in your life forever. With the intercession of St. Joseph, Patron of the Universal Church, we ask this through Christ the Lord. Amen.

When we refer to our parish, we often refer to our "home" parish. Perhaps this is the parish we grew up at, or the parish we were married at. Maybe it's the parish where we raise our own families, or where we land after relocating to a new city. This is the parish we attend each weekend surrounded by families we experience life with or watch from afar as they move in and out of seasons of life. Our parish homes are much like our personal homes. They are places where we live and grow together. Within our parishes, we find God's family, the Church. And God's family is our family. In his address "The Parish is the Family of Families," Pope John Paul II said "I invite all you who are unsure about the Church or who doubt that you will be welcomed to come home to the family of families, to come home to your parish. You belong there! It is your family in the Church, and the Church is the household of God in which there are no strangers or aliens (cf. Eph. 2:19)." There are no strangers in our parishes, as there are no strangers in our homes. In what ways can you reach out to a new parishioner to welcome them into your parish family? In what ways does your parish feel like home?
