Elite Medical Imaging (EMI) will be here on Saturday, October 2, in the RE Bldg, to provide our annual Preventive Ultrasound Health Screening. Ultrasound screenings are painless, non-invasive and contain no radiation. Eight preventive screenings will be offered: carotid artery, abdominal aorta, thyroid, liver, spleen, gallbladder and both kidneys. These screenings are not typically done at doctor's visits or at annual checkups, nor will insurance companies pay for them, unless you are symptomatic. Screenings will be offered to you for $49 each or the full package, (all 8 areas) for just $150.00! Flex spending accounts may be used, and all other forms of payment are accepted the day of the screening. Their radiologist recommends these screenings be considered on an annual basis as a preventive measure. Oftentimes, results can change from one year to the next based on age, stress factors and lifestyle. Appointments are required and will be offered on a first come first serve basis. An EMI representative will also be here the weekend of September 25/26, offering pre-registration and to answer any questions. However, if you prefer scheduling your appointment beforehand, please email Stacey.aguirre@emi.us.com for an appointment request or call 713-568-8831.

Our Parish Family Picnic and Fun Day is approaching, which will be held Sunday, October 17th, from noon to 5:00 pm. There will be lots of games for children, teens, and adults. Dear friends in Christ,

May the peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. We welcome all of our guests this weekend who have come for our annual Parish Bazaar. We hope you will have a wonderful meal and an enjoyable day with us. Thank you for coming to support Holy Trinity Parish.

Pro-life ministry change: Recently our pro-life coordinator, Chris Garlasco, resigned. During the past five years much was accomplished through his leadership in pro-life ministry in our parish. I am very grateful for his service to Holy Trinity Parish. Just as God sent Chris to us, now He has sent us another pro-life coordinator. Her name is Laura Hill. I am looking forward to working with her in pro-life ministry and how this ministry will continue to build upon what Chris and the pro-life team have begun.

This Tuesday is the Feast Day of St. Matthew, Apostle and Evangelist. St. Matthew was the son of Alpheus, and he was likely born in Galilee. He worked as a tax collector, which was a hated profession during the time of Christ. According to the Gospel, Matthew was working at a collection booth in Capernaum when Christ came to him and asked, "Follow me." With this simple call, Matthew became a disciple of Christ.

From Matthew we know of the many doings of Christ and the message Christ spread of salvation for all people who come to God through Him. The Gospel account of Matthew tells the same story as that found in the other three Gospels, so scholars are certain of its authenticity. His book is the first of the four Gospels in the New Testament.

Many years following the death of Christ, around 41 and 50 AD, Matthew wrote his gospel account. He wrote the book in Aramaic in the hope that his account would convince his fellow people that Jesus was the Messiah and that His kingdom had been fulfilled in a spiritual way. It was an important message at a time when almost everyone was expecting the return of a militant messiah brandishing a sword.

It is believed that Matthew died a martyr's death in Ethiopia. His tomb is located in the crypt of Salerno Cathedral in southern Italy. Matthew was a tax collector and is therefore the patron saint of bankers. The Church established St. Matthew's feast day as September 21.

Today's gospel teaches us a little lesson about humility. If we are to serve the Lord, whether it be in priesthood, religious life, marriage, or in the single life, we must be humble, not bragging about ourselves, nor trying to prove how great we are. This is a challenge for us all. This is really what St. James is saying in the second reading today. St. James gets straight to the point, warning us not to let our passions take control of our lives. Let us reflect upon James 3:17, "But the wisdom from above is first of all pure, then peaceable, gentle, compliant, full of mercy and good fruits, without inconstancy or insincerity." May we try to live our lives with this kind of wisdom, being humble and faithful disciples of our Lord.

K úvaze: Dnes jsme na vlastní uši slyšeli a rozumem pojali další lekci Ježíšova učení: „Kdo chce být první, buď ze všech poslední a služebník všech“ (Mk 9,35).

Komu to vlastně Ježíš říká? „Ježíš usedl, zavolal svých Dvanáct a řekl jim...“ (Mk 9,35). Tedy svým dvanácti apoštolům. Týká se to tedy výhradně jich nebo i jejich nástupců – papeže, biskupů a jejich pomocníků kněží a jáhnů? Anebo skrze tento zárodek univerzální církve nás všech?

A podobně každý z nás může přijmout roli služícího. Ne pro první místo v Božím království, ale pro osobní napodobování Ježíšova příkladu. Sloužit pro radost ze služby, radost ze „zdamadanosti“, radost z radosti druhých, zvláště těch, kteří nám nemohou oplatit stejnou mincí. (Pastorace.cz)

Vigésimo Quinto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario: Cristo nos recuerda que "el que recibe a un niño como éste en mi nombre, me recibe a mí". Considerando los distintos temas que afectan a los niños en nuestro país -particularmente a los niños de los inmigrantes, los marginados y los no-natos- debemos alzarnos por sus derechos ya que ellos poseen una dignidad inherente y merecen cubrir sus necesidades básicas para crecer como hijos gozosos de Dios.

May the Lord bless you all with a week filled with His Love.

In Christ, Fr. Stephen Nestrta, farář

Prayer for the Diocese of Austin Year of the Domestic Church

O God, creator of all, you ordered the earth to bring forth life and crowned its goodness by creating the human family. In history's moment when all was ready, you sent your Son to dwell in time, "practicing the virtues of family life and in the bonds of charity." Teach us the sanctity of human love; show us the value of the Domestic Church; and help us to live in peace with all people, that we may share in your life forever. With the intercession of St. Joseph, Patron of the Universal Church, we ask this through Christ the Lord. Amen.

When we refer to our parish, we often refer to our "home" parish. Perhaps this is the parish we grew up at, or the parish we were married at. Maybe it's the parish where we raise our own families, or where we land after relocating to a new city. This is the parish we attend each weekend surrounded by families we experience life with or watch from afar as they move in and out of seasons of life. Our parish homes are much like our personal homes. They are places where we live and grow together. Within our parishes, we find God's family, the Church. And God's family is our family. In his address "The Parish is the Family of Families," Pope John Paul II said "I invite all you who are unsure about the Church or who doubt that you will be welcomed to come home to the family of families, to come home to your parish. You belong there! It is your family in the Church, and the Church is the household of God in which there are no strangers or aliens (cf. Eph. 2:19)." There are no strangers in our parishes, as there are no strangers in our homes. In what ways can you reach out to a new parishioner to welcome them into your parish family? In what ways does your parish feel like home?
