Dear friends in Christ,

Peace be with you. During this month of October we celebrate the month of the Rosary. Why should we pray the Rosary? We should pray it because it is a meditation on the life of Jesus. The prayers of the Rosary come from the Bible as well and are an expression of our life of faith. Just by reflecting on the mysteries of the Rosary you will reflect upon the entire life of Jesus, from the moment of conception to His ascension into heaven. So, pray the Rosary daily and enter into the fullness of the life of Jesus Christ. Mary wants all of us to have a closer relationship with her Son, that's why she gave us the Rosary to meditate upon. Come and pray the Rosary with us this Thursday, October 7, the Feast of the Most Holy Rosary, at 6:30 pm.

October is also Respect Life Month. Let us all learn what the Church teaches about life issues, whether they are about abortion, birth control, tubal ligations, vasectomies, embryonic stem cell research, the death penalty, the elderly, the dying, the poor, immigration, the health care, marriage, and many other issues. All of these are important, but abortion is the most serious because it is the killing of a baby in the womb of its mother. It is the killing of the most innocent of life. Let us pray that the eyes of all may be opened to this horrible tragedy that takes place every day. Sometime this month come to the church for an hour of prayer to pray for respect for life in all its stages. May the laws of our country be changed soon so that all life is respected.

This month is also Czech Heritage Month. Many of us here at Holy Trinity are of Czech Bohemian/Moravian descent. Let us pray for the people in the Czech Republic. May we all appreciate our roots, no matter what ethnic group we may have come from.

In today's Gospel Jesus emphasizes the sacredness of marriage between a man and a woman. He also tells us of how divorce is against the will of God. This passage from the Gospel of Mark is also found in the Gospel of Matthew. In it Jesus is changing the attitude of the people concerning the relationship between a man and a woman. He is definitely raising it to a much higher dignity than what was thought of at His time. This teaching seems to be ignored by the majority of Christians in today's world. Marriage is to be taken seriously and is to be a lifelong relationship of just one man and one woman. Jesus says the "two become one flesh" and that "what God has joined together, no human being must separate." The Catholic Church teaches that a Sacramental Marriage is indissoluble, divorce is not an option. However, the Church also realizes that not all marriages, even though it may be in a church, are necessarily a Sacramental Marriage. That is why we have the annulment process. An annulment is not a divorce. When the Church determines a marriage to be annulled it is stating that for some reason that particular marriage was not a Sacramental Marriage to begin with due to some impediment that was present at the time of marriage. It was a marriage but not a Sacramental one. Only the Church has the authority as given to it by Jesus to make this judgment. Many times one of the spouses becomes the victim in a divorce. One spouse wants to work things out, but the other one does not even want to try. Maybe they are already involved in an adulterous relationship with another person and because of this grave sin they are not willing to change the wrong they are doing. The one who wants to work things out and renew their marriage relationship then becomes the victim and suffers greatly. Or, maybe the spouse who was cheated on and hurt by the other is not willing to forgive as they should. This is a sad reality in life which hurts not only the spouse who wants to do what is right, but also hurts the children. We must pray that couples can remain faithful to their marriage vows and truly see their relationship as being sacred because they are united by Jesus to one another. Remember your vows: for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, until death do us part. May God bless all married couples with the courage, strength and love needed to be faithful to one another and to be faithful to God. May they love one another as God loves them.

K úvaze: Zdá se, že dnes lidé potřebují spíš dodat odvahy k hledání a získávání vysokého ideálu. Tedy v tomto případě: uvěřit, že věčné a trvalé manželství je navzdory všem krizím a rozvodům kolem nás opravdu možné. Že patří do Božího řádu, není jen lidským výmyslem. Ale - a na to se nesmí zapomenout, že manželství patří do Božího plánu, který byl stanoven před příchodem hříchu: pokud ho tedy chce člověk naplnit, má se dostat do situace "před hříchem", tedy má mít co nejlépejší podíl na vykoupení. Tedy zřetelně: naděje křesťanského manželství nespočívá především v tom, že bylo uzavřeno v kostele, ani především v tom, že se manželé nemohou před Bohem rozvést, ale především v tom, že žijí z vykoupení. 27mo. Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario: Valores fundamentales para los fieles Cristianos son la relación y la solidaridad. Vivir una vida en y de Jesucristo significa que tenemos la obligación de manifestar solidaridad humana a través del trabajo de nuestras manos y nuestras acciones. Vivir en relaciones correctas con otros trae paz.

Please pray for all the priests of the Diocese of Austin as we meet in Round Rock Monday thru Thursday of this week.

In Christ, Fr. Stephen Nesrsta, farář

Prayer for the Diocese of Austin Year of the Domestic Church

O God, creator of all, you ordered the earth to bring forth life and crowned its goodness by creating the human family. In history's moment when all was ready, you sent your Son to dwell in time, "practicing the virtues of family life and in the bonds of charity." Teach us the sanctity of human love; show us the value of the Domestic Church; and help us to live in peace with all people, that we may share in your life forever. With the intercession of St. Joseph, Patron of the Universal Church, we ask this through Christ the Lord. Amen.
