Dear friends in Christ,

Can you feel it? There is a different feel in the air now that we have begun this month of November and as people begin to prepare for Thanksgiving, Advent and Christmas. I hope you are able to allow yourself to experience the presence of the Spirit during this time of year. Take time to allow the Spirit to work within you so that you are filled with the peace, love and joy that Jesus gives to those who live in Him.

Thank you to everyone who has sent in their pledge to the Diocese of Austin for the Catholic Services Appeal. Your generosity supports hundreds of various programs throughout the Diocese of Austin. If you have not sent your pledge, please do so as soon as possible. All pledges count, whether they are a financial contribution or one of prayer. Both are needed so mail in that pledge envelope. Thank you.

Thank you to Jennifer Marquis, Theresa Orrechia and Leslie Allen for accepting to serve on the Pastoral Council. Thank you also to Stephanie Wright, Kelly Godfrey and Mary Margaret Heuertz who have completed their term in office.

Our readings today speak to us about giving with a generous and joyful attitude. Notice that in the first reading from the Book of Kings and also from the gospel taken from the Gospel of Mark, these women give all that they had. What trust and faith in God they must have had in order to give the all that they had to give. It reminds me of our ancestors who gave so much to build the churches we have today. Most of them gave not from any surplus monies, but they gave until they could give no more. It seems that in today's world many people only want to give when they have something left over and giving to God seems to come last in their priorities. I am very proud of the parishioners here at Holy Trinity Parish who do have that same faith and trust in God and give with a generous and joyful spirit. It is a sign that we truly believe in God's love and in His generosity to us. May all of us grow to have such faith. Thank for the witness you give to God's presence in your life.

This Thursday we celebrate the feast of St. Martin. Martin lived from 316 AD to 397 AD. He was a soldier and had a conversion to Christ. He refused to fight so he was jailed and eventually released. He became bishop of Tours, France in 371 AD. He loved and cared for the poor of his diocese. May we follow his example and do the same.

Thursday is also Veteran's Day. Please pray for all veterans who have served our country by serving in the Armed Forces.

Please continue to pray for the Souls in Purgatory during this month of November as we remember those who have died. May they rest in peace.

K ZAMYŠLENÍ: „Jde jim zase o peníze,“ můžeme slyšet při vyslechnutí dnešního evangelia. Ale pozorný čtenář dobře postřehl, že právě o ně vůbec nešlo. Proč Pán sleduje přispěvatele, když šlo o ryze osobní věc? Leží mu na srdci učedníci. Brzy s ním ztratí bezprostřední kontakt. Budou vědět, jak mají sami ve svém soukromém životě žít poselství evangelia? Příkladem je vdova, žena bez zajištění, které tehdy poskytoval manžel. Nyní je bez příjmů. A ona dala všechno, co měla! Vzdala se všech jistot. Pán poznal, že motivací bylo naprosté odevzdání se Bohu, naprostá důvěra a víra v Hospodinovu moc. Tento obraz bude apoštoly doprovázet, až Ježíš nebude s nimi. Takto mají žít i oni. (Vira.cz)

XXII domingo del Tiempo Ordinario: "Aunque en general es difícil marcar la diferencia entre lo que se necesita justamente y lo que es requerido por testimonio profético, debemos ciertamente mantenernos firmes a este principio: nuestra fe nos demanda una cierta frugalidad, y la Iglesia está obligada a vivir y administrar sus propios bienes de tal manera que el Evangelio sea proclamado a los pobres" (Sinodo Mundial de Obispos, Justice in the World, 47).

May all of you have a most blessed week.

In Christ, Fr. Stephen Nestrta, farář

December 2021 Hail Mary, Full of Grace

Prayer for the Diocese of Austin Year of the Domestic Church

O God, creator of all, you ordered the earth to bring forth life and crowned its goodness by creating the human family. In history's moment when all was ready, you sent your Son to dwell in time, "practicing the virtues of family life and in the bonds of charity." Teach us the sanctity of human love; show us the value of the Domestic Church; and help us to live in peace with all people, that we may share in your life forever. With the intercession of St. Joseph, Patron of the Universal Church, we ask this through Christ the Lord. Amen.

Often when we hear the term "stewardship," the "three T's" come to mind: time, talent and treasure. While we often hear about these in regards to participation in the life of a parish or while people are seeking monetary donations, stewardship affects all aspects of life, as everything that we have comes from the Lord. As faithful Catholics, we are called to take care of and use well all the gifts that the Lord has given. Within the domestic church, our families provide ample opportunity for us to teach each other stewardship and hold each other accountable for our resources. For example, families can work together in serving the poor, joining a ministry at your parish that is in need, minimizing waste and consumable materials, spending time together in prayer, or simply serving each other lovingly when it is difficult. Children also rely on their parents to demonstrate what it means to give to the Church financially through tithing, as well as through giving of their time and talent. All of the faithful, young and old, are called to be stewards of God's gifts. As the holidays approach, how can your family grow in understanding of stewardship? How can you serve a person or family in need? It is never too early or too late to be good stewards of God's gifts.
